Don't let anyone tell you that crime is going down in America. All over the United States, rates of violent crime in our major cities are increasing by double digit percentages. Murders are way up, shootings are way up and rapes are way up. So what is behind this sudden spike in crime? In Baltimore, authorities are pointing to the racial tensions that were stirred up by the riots that erupted in protest to the death of Freddie Gray. But what about the rest of the country? From coast to coast, we are witnessing a dramatic increase in violent crime, and the economy is not even crashing yet. So what is going to happen when the next great economic crisis hits us, unemployment skyrockets, and people really start hurting?

When I was surveying the news today, I was very surprised to learn that the murder rate in Milwaukee, Wisconsin has more than doubled so far this year...

Milwaukee, which had one of its lowest annual homicide totals in city history last year, has recorded 84 murders so far this year, more than double the 41 it tallied at the same point last year.

And of course Milwaukee is far from alone. All over the U.S., violent crime is jumping dramatically. Here is more from USA Today...

Baltimore, New Orleans and St. Louis have also seen the number of murders jump 33% or more in 2015. Meanwhile, Chicago, the nation's third-largest city, has seen the homicide toll climb by 19% and the number of shooting incidents increase in the city by 21% during the first half of the year.

In all the cities, the increased violence is disproportionately impacting poor and predominantly African-American and Latino neighborhoods. In parts of Milwaukee, the sound of gunfire has become so expected that about 80% of gunfire detected by ShotSpotter sensors aren't even called into police by residents, Flynn said.

The crimes seem to be getting more brutal as well. Just the other day, I was stunned by one particular incident that happened in Baltimore...

Gunmen got out of two vans and began firing at a group gathered on a corner Tuesday night, fatally shooting three people, police said.

The two gunmen shot a total of four people — one who was in stable condition — a few blocks from the urban campus of the University of Maryland, Baltimore, according to police.

The three deaths bring the homicide total for Baltimore for the year to at least 154, according to police news releases. That's an increase of more than 40 percent compared with the same time last year. Shootings have increased more than 80 percent. The city has seen a spike in violence since the April death of Freddie Gray after his arrest. The incident received widespread national attention and sparked unrest across Baltimore.

To me, that almost sounds like a scene out of some really violent mobster movie.

What would cause people to behave like that?

Things are also getting crazy out on the west coast. According to Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti, overall crime in the city is up by more than 12 percent so far in 2015...

For the first time in more than a decade, overall crime is up in Los Angeles through the first six months of the year, rising by more than 12%, according to figures released Wednesday.

The increase has continued despite the city's efforts to stem the crime surge, which followed consecutive declines since 2003.

"This is bad news," Mayor Eric Garcetti told reporters Wednesday. "Let me be clear: Any uptick in crime is unacceptable."

And some of the crimes that are being committed out there absolutely defy explanation. For instance, just the other day someone walked up to a 30-year-old white woman as she was strolling with her boyfriend and fired a shotgun into the back of her head for apparently no good reason whatsoever...

Sunday night in Los Angeles as a 30 year-old white woman walked with her boyfriend near Sunset Boulevard in Hollywood, a mysterious black man walked up behind the couple and without saying a word fired a shotgun blast to the back of the woman's head, according to police.

The killer was seen carrying the shotgun as he ran to a car and drove away.

The search for the killer continues.

But it isn't just murder rates that are surging. Sex crime rates are also on the rise all over America. The following is an excerpt from a recent New York Post article entitled "Sex crimes are soaring in NYC"...

Sex crimes are soaring in the city, with an especially frightening spike taking place during the past few weeks, The Post has learned.

Misdemeanor sexual assaults as of Sunday night this year increased by 20 percent over the same period in 2014, from 1,003 to 1,203.

But they shot up 75 percent for the week ending Sunday compared to the same week last year — from 45 to 79.

I believe that we have reached a turning point.

I believe that we have entered a period of time when violent crime in the United States is going to start skyrocketing – especially once the next major economic downturn arrives.

Meanwhile, budget cuts are forcing police forces to cut back all over the nation. For example, the number of patrol officers in the city of Detroit has been reduced by 37 percent in the last three years alone...

There are currently fewer officers patrolling the city than at any time since the 1920s. At one point, the Detroit police force was over 5,000. Today, the force is just 1,590 officers strong — and not all of those are on the street.

*The city has lost nearly half its patrol officers since 2000 and ranks have shrunk by 37 percent in the past three years alone, according to the Detroit News. It's so bad that precincts are reportedly left with only one squad car at times.

But at least the police in the area have still maintained their sense of humor. Just recently, someone stole 28,000 pounds of packaged nuts from a location in suburban Detroit...

Police in suburban Detroit are having a little fun while asking for help from the public in figuring out who swiped roughly 28,000 pounds of packaged nuts.

The Shelby Township Police Department says a truck and trailer packed with 18 pallets of walnuts and other snack nuts were taken the weekend of June 27. Police say the truck and trailer were found July 1 in Detroit, but the nuts worth more than $128,000 were gone.

This is the photo of the suspect that was actually released by the police...

some gangs require new guys to kill someone.
this does not tell you all the shootings where they target other gangs GROINS.....they now -shoot the junk off-- each other.

also, in south america, the cops have something called ----pequito trabaho--- a little work.....they go out shooting gang members while making it look like it was another gang that did the shooting.
I have guessed that the practice has come here in places.

Because most white people still think this country has a functioning justice system that will bring evil people to justice. Most of them have not come to the realization that the rule of law has completely broken down and the justice now is only served at the sharp end of a gun barrel. I don't think they got the memo that said it is ok for the darkies to kill whitie. But have faith they are starting to wake up.....

It does not take a rocket scientist to tell who is doing the killing. As per usual it is blacks killing each other like hot cakes. And that is all good in the hood as long as they stay in their part of town and kill each other. If they start killing people outside of the ghetto, men with machine guns are going to have to sort things out.

The survey said 14,827 people were murdered last year in the United States, well down from 24,526 in 1993, when the country's population was smaller.

But the 2012 murder rate — 4.7 murders per 100,000 people — was significantly higher than in most other wealthy nations.

The comparable rate is 0.4 in Japan, 0.8 in Germany, 1.0 in Australia 1.1 in France and 1.2 in Britain, according to figures compiled by the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development.

outside our borders. You know, war'n'shit, where we're always the good guys. There you might well find an uptick in violent crime. Wedding parties, women collecting firewood, schoolbuses, bad shit like that, droned into oblivion.

If you don't like violence within the USSA, then look at violence we perform on others, Maybe if we weren't the most violent nation on earth outside our borders, there might be a bit less within our borders.

To others we are a nation of homicidal maniacs.

Sure, he is not alone and there are likely more it is our choice as to whether we go along,

whether we enable them,
if we give our jobs away by constantly going with the lowest price, if we give our freedoms away by constantly grappling to suck at their tit for whatever bits and crumbs they offer. None of this can happen without OUR participation. This is how it always is, always has been. We are oppressed, tyrannized, enslaved, abused, because we allow it. Meanwhile, we bitch and moan and desperately seek the evil boogeyman to blame. Its make us feel so much better imaging some evil genius, some grand conspiracy that we are all victims of, rather than accept that it is we, ourselves, who constantly bring us to this point. We will sell or even give away our liberties for security and "something for nothing". Ultimately we always go pretty and cheap.

everything you said, with the exception of imagining some evil genius, grand conspiracy. It's not imagination, it's the truth, and unless we recognize the source, we'll continue to blame only the front man, rather than seeking to expose the truth. The true powers hide behind the veil of secrecy, but it's only because the masses buy into the propoganda that is perpetuated by the mainstream media. If you shoot the guy that robbed your house, he's dead, but if the guy that ordered him to rob your house isn't exposed, he just sends another thug, and another, and another. Nothing changes until the truth is exposed. That's my entire point. Sure, Obama's to blame for being a fraud and a traitor, but changing him out nothing, does it?

And who would want to see a bunch of gorillas running around after getting shot in the nuts? Google it.

I've lived in Chicago, the worst part, but thanks anyway.

I was speaking quite literally, this country has become very filthy in the past decade or so. On a basic level. Grimy, sticky, greasy. From the banks to the Post Offices to fucking Nieman Marcus. Not to mention the private homes of people who work 2-3 jobs and only have time to slop around some Pine Sol on the floor once every few years if that.

It's definitely different. I'm not talking about post-colonial squalor or medieval dungeon standards, not sure why you'd even bring that up.

I can tell you exactly what that is, it occurs when people stop caring about making the most of what they have, and stop doing things the best that they can, with what little they've got. Someone else will take care of it.

It's also associated with the disposable culture mindset. Especially how the shittier products become in shops, and the cheaper these crap shops are, and the shittier are the gadgets accepted to be, and thus become disposable and life-limited, simply because they are in fact cheap crap, that whole outlook begins to permeate the cultural psyche, and everything begins to be treated like cheap crap.

And the stuff that is in fact not cheap to replace, is also treated like disposable crap. Except it isn't. It becomes expensive crap, that looks like shit, is mistreated even more, valued less and fails sooner, and now it also can't be replaced.

Hence infrastructure decrepitude, and the failure to give a fuck to look after things that are relatively new, as we once did. We cheapened everything, including the things we as a result, can't afford anymore.

And not just the surroundings suffer, but all of the people also stop making the most of their minds and bodies, within that process. Hence fat, dopey slugs, with bad attitudes, and don't give a fuck.

This is all a product of chronic mediocrity setting in as we gradually lower our standards (even though we hate that fall in quality and expectations) and start to accept cheap faulty shitty goods, and really bad food, and poor service, and extremely dubious thinking.

It is all part of the sickening of the culture, and culture is just the minds of a collective, expressed into the world.

And what is expressed now is the grime, filth and smear, on all levels, because the inner life is sick and decayed.

This is of course not what will take humanity further.

But let's not nit-pick. It's also why the concept of "American Exceptionalism" seems so totally absurd and offensive now. It's clearly not any longer. It's capacity to impress used to be due to an admirable culture of motivation, innovation and making the most of what it could do, and what it could develop to do even more.

And that culture has become remote, rarefied, recessed, and is actively discouraged but what calls itself culture in its place. Which reinforces the proliferation of exceptional dumbness. Standards keep falling.

It's called DECADENCE and it precedes every empire's collapse.

Wrong Way! Go Back!

8 Expo 74 was quite the 0 coup for such a small city like Spokane. My Dad had no interest in bunking down every night with all those people making a god damn racket...so we stayed in these little white cabins in front of Lake Coeur d'alaine every night. The place was packed with plates from Cali to Canada, Nobody misbehaved and everybody had a great time. Americana at its finest.

When my mom died a few years ago I found her photo album from the trip. It was like a time machine, my friend.

All the adults had cigarettes in their hands and the kids were all riding bikes our motorcycles without helmets are much clothing.

9 Our 100 acre

 northern Spokane (

Colbert). We hope to return before Cali descends into utter chaos and consumes itself. It's amazing to visit and see that the area has changed so little from the early 80s. Perhaps that's the nature of farm vs city living. A more quiet and slower paced life. Pine, spruce and tamarack growing around hay fields. Such a completely different world from where I now reside.

Yes, we were very

he got away (I guess the

The Bloods and Crips were seemed a little clueless to knew would result in a poor outcome. The north side is still good and our

Frankly, it's hard to find a

3 That was a great really had a blast at Expo '74. We really thought we were badasses in high school, driving to the big city of Spokane and pretending we were looking for trouble. We thought we saw hookers on Riverside. I do not remember if that is what months. Naturally, we shouted at and insulted those that appeared to be winos or bums. Seemed like the thing to do at the time. Young guys can be pretty cruel.

It was great growing up in that part of the country. If you should wind up there, you really should meet my brother and his family. I have an aunt and uncle there, too. You share many values and probably travel in similar circles. My brother will be looking at some new project when he gets a couple of homes near Sandpoint sold. 0 those microwave frequencies blasting us every nanosecond, the medication, the fluoridated water, the vaccines, the increasing amounts of GM food and whatever shit is being sprayed in the sky. But seriously microwave frequencies alter brain waves and affect your behaviour and mood. However because everyone is different then for many certain frequencies don't affect them while others do.

The best analogy is a strong earthquake striking a city block and all the buildings are standing except for one which has completely collapsed. Now why has this one building collapsed? Because it's natural frequencies corresponded with the earthquake's vibrations and this creates resonance which amplifies the shaking.

It's kind of the same with brain waves and microwaves. Oh yeah, DNA splits using processes of electromagnetism, so what happens when you have artificial EM waves bombarding the human body which deviate from standard (natural) EM activity? More cancer that's what.

It just goes to show how tough humans are, and nature itself, to withstand all of these interfering factors without keeling over and dying. But many hundreds of millions are suffering in some form or another from the above take your pick: depression, allergies, mood swings, weird aches and pains and last but not least procrastination- if you're brain waves are being scrambled like crazy then it becomes rather hard to concentrate.

Ever feel like brain has turned to mush for no good reason or it doesn't feel like there's anything coherent inside? That's the microwave frequencies- they subtly fuck with your mind.

Oh yes, last and not least I forgot about the phthalates in plastic. Phthalates are compounds which effect the softness/hardness tension/slackness in plastic and boy do they all sorts to human health! For instance they have been known to cause ADHD, breast cancer, obesity and type II diabetes, low IQ, neurodevelopmental issues, behavioral issues, autism spectrum disorders, altered reproductive development and male fertility issues.

The last two are particularly interesting because this is not confined to humans. This affects animals for a steadily growing, but small, minority of male animals are becoming feminized: there reproductive parts are damaged and sometimes non-existent. However scientists have not appeared to conduct any research into whether phthalates can alter sexual orientation in both animals and humans.

And ZHers wonder why there are so many faggots and metrosexuals out there... Probably the phthalates.

p.s. There is no escaping phthalates, there's so many dodgy ones that you have most certainly repeated touched or used plastic and products containing these blighters.

p.s.s Let me put it this way. Try taking plastic out of the economy, just think about that alright?

those factors amplify 6297586

Besides these factors may affect different racial types in different ways, but again no one has performed any research to analyze this, so it is naught but speculation. But those factors are definitely affecting people and making many lives very miserable.

Now take any racial group, place them in grinding poverty and constant need, and they will become just as disorganized and crime-ridden as the blacks in the US.

10 Here's my 19:51 | 6297573
0 theory, backed by socio–biology and 56 years of watching people sleep–walk: the human world is an illusion divorced from reality.

An illusion, and everyone carries a small piece of that illusion around in their own head. We're all making this shit up as we go, completely making it up, the other animals in the world cannot understand 99.9% of what we are about, it's just random batshit crazy that only makes sense to humans. And not all the time even then.

Now, so long as there is some kind of common narrative about shit then we all "agree" most of the time what our world is about.
As soon as that narrative starts to become questionable (we notice a lot of people in power are in fact lying to us some or most or all of the time) we all start to go off the script in individual ways, some more than others, some sooner than others, depending on how much actual "reality" they allowed before. Yeah there is a real world, some of us get that part and just deal with it. But some do not and live in a fantasy world some or all of the time. As soon as the fantasy unhinges from real things then everyone's individual illusion starts to take over in a way the rest of us see as "WTF" behaviors. But seriously, it's all been "WTF" since who knows, we just never notice until "WTF" starts to diverge from what we all thought we knew was important. Well it wasn't important, it was just what we all wanted to believe.

Get ready for a lot of this. It is the cost we are about to pay for 400 years of blatantly lying to ourselves about everything. And if you want to get down to it, more like 2,500 years of doing that.

Yeah I'm blaming the Greeks for some of this. Democracy. What the fuck were they even thinking?

The economy for many HAS been crashing, that's sort of the point. With less people working, it doesn't matter IF numbers go up, those numbers are representing less people. Even if you are represented by having a job, you are getting a smaller and smaller piece of the pie. People don't just start acting up when the overall economy crashes, it ticks up whenever more are under stress than before, and as time goes on, this number keeps going up and up. Each job lost or coming of age individual who doesn't enter the workforce is another potential stick of dynamite.

Our physical economy has been declining since the 60's. We saw great upticks in violence due to the dislocations cause by the effects (all related) of the Vietnam war, outsourcing jobs, but our physical economy has been falling hard this century. With no Glass-Steagall, our numbers don't need to be based on reality anymore.

People have no options, and we've raised a generation of people, say...those under 25 or so, that have learned no one is accountable for anything.

Think about it this way, the real crap show that has happened since 9/11 (though of course this has been happening since JFK died), the kids who were 4 years old, just graduated high school, those there were 8, just graduated college. For many accountability isn't something they've seen. They've seen everyone just crony along to get along, so now that they are adults who were told as children they were all winners, yet they feel the squeeze of not winning, they are mighty pissed off, and like who they saw behave badly all their life with almost everyone in an position of authority, these young adults aren't accountable like they weren't.

The TV shows they grew up on weren't Andy Griffith or I Love Lucy or Hogan's Heroes, it was Survivor with the backstabbing, the crazy out of touch with reality Kartrashians. If I could use one word to describe the average TV program a young person was exposed to this century, I'd use the word NARCISSISM. They grew up watching self-centered psychopaths be lauded as great and important people. We created a generation of narcissists.

They weren't given much freedom being coddled by their parents, and treated like prisoners in school.

They didn't get an education, the funding cuts, the cancelled programs, higher sports fees, the intimidation they received from those teaching or overseeing them, and they were all taught on the basis that they needed to pass a test because that would show other people that they 'learned' something.

So of course many don't have a proper education, because they cut everything to prepare them for a test. All you need is to look at the people who don't know what the fucking 1st amendment is, or when Abraham Lincoln was our president, or what country we broke away from to declare our independence.

Many are simply walking around this shit show with no skills, a rude awakening, no jobs, no sense of accomplishing anything real... after of course they were all told they excelled at everything when they did nothing. Many can't get entry level jobs because those fast food jobs are going to college graduates. Oh and of course, they've been inundated since birth around the hip-hop bling bling that if you don't have the Benjamin's (of course they don't know who the fuck he is) then you are nothing. So if you don't have a job, don't have money, don't have any options, they feel a social sting more so then earlier generations. Plus of course, no one of the opposite sex will date them.

Add in all the psycho meds they put these kids on even if most don't need any of them that have shown to cause psychotic episodes, coupled with all the more numerous drug choices and availability they have and take part in, and they don't stand a match against such a situation.

Food stamps don't buy you half of what they bought you when Nerobama took office, and if they do scrape up some money for some crap fast food, the value menu meal will cost you $8. Of course if you want two of their premium sandwiches and a drink, you are looking at more like $12.

Everywhere they turn, they are fucked. When they look around, almost everyone seems to be in the same boat, and this mentality grows and becomes pervasive. But they do see some people who have seemingly made it, and those people are rubbing their noses with it on Crapbook.

Of course, even those older then these people are feeling similar pressures, and while they weren't brought up on this shitshow, they have been living through it, with it's moral absences chipping away at their moral compass all this time. They have lost families, homes, cars, jobs, and their future as well. One need only look at the Democratic party, filled with people who rightfully bitched at Bush for all his war crimes and impeachable offenses, but since 'Bush' did it, it's fine that their guy, Obama, does it.

So yes, it's not surprising that crime is surging, and of course if the metrics that the rich measure the economy crashes, then I suspect the moral degeneracy coupled with legitimate strife that together is simmering just under the surface, will explode.

Son of Tory MP and Boris Johnson's former deputy is beaten unconscious by girl gang in KFC in Leicester Square

Strapped to his hospital bed, this is the son of a high ranking Tory MP who was beaten unconscious by a violent girl gang after being attacked in KFC. Tom Borwick whose mother is newly elected Kensington MP Victoria Borwick, suffered repeated blows to the head as he desperately tried to protect his girlfriend. The 27-year-old was set upon initially as he queued for food with friends before the clash with three women spilled out onto the pavement outside the eatery in London's Leicester Square and the 27-year-old was knocked out.

Scotland Yard has released CCTV images of two of the women involved in the attack on Tom and his unnamed girlfriend at 9.45pm on June 27.

They said in a statement: 'One of the females punched the man in the head numerous times. Both parties were then removed by security from the premises.'

'As the male victim was recovering from the assault, the suspects came back several minutes later and continued the altercation on the pavement outside. They pushed the female on the ground and the man tried to defend her. He was then pushed and fell unconscious.'

'The females then kicked him while he was on the floor and fled before police arrived. Both victims suffered minor injuries and attended hospital later.' All three are black females aged in their 20s or 30s. One was wearing black clothing and one was wearing a royal blue dress.

Federal agents last night arrested a baby-faced Nebraska boy, 12, for his role in the murder of a man during an armed robbery. Jarrell Milton was collared by U.S. Marshals Service agents in Minneapolis, nearly 400 miles from the boy's Omaha, Nebraska residence. Investigators allege that Milton and two other boys--Shuntayvious Primes-Willis, 15, and Jamar Milton, 17--last month lured two men to an Omaha park with the ruse of conducting a marijuana sale. Jarrell (seen at right) and Jamar are brothers.

6 The banking
0 mafia are

20:45 | 6297733

1) a minority

2) responsible for wrecking the economy at regular intervals due to short term greed

so what they do is fund front organisations to create division among the rest of the population. It doesn't matter what kind of division; it can be racial, religious, cultural, whatever and they may even fund both sides of the argument because the main thing is to spread so much conflict that people don't turn on the banking mafia when they blow up the economy with their greed.

This is why their media have been so full on stirring up racial hatred over Trayvon Martin, Ferguson etc over the last few years - the economy is trashed, the banking mafia did it and they want everyone fighting each other instead of blaming them.

This isn't a hippy comment though. They control the media and it works. As the economy continues to slide the banking mafia's media will get all the different ethno-cultural groups at each other's throats to deflect them from the banking mafia.

Be as prepared as you can be.

I uprated your post because you made good points however I have a correction to make, this is NOT "black run america", another group runs it:

Obongo is a puppet, here are the puppet masters:

Rahm Emanuel is the same Israeli who ran the White House under Bill Clinton, although he did not have the chief of staff position. Emanuel has controlled Obama for years. Rahm Emanuel, who is named after a Lehi (Stern Gang) terrorist named Rahamim Cohen, and David Axelrod have been working together since 1984 when they teamed up to help Paul Simon (Mr. Bowtie) defeat Sen. Charles Percy (R-Ill.). These two Zionists spearheaded the campaign to put Barack Obama into the White House. Axelrod and Emanuel, however, were being supported by a much higher Zionist -- Bettylu Saltzman, the daughter of Chicago's super-Zionist Philip Klutznick. Axelrod has been creating and shaping Candidate Obama for more than 16 years. "Axelrod met Obama when the senator was 30 years old and coordinating a voter-registration drive in Chicago and Bettylu Saltzman, a doyenne of progressive politics in Chicago, suggested that the two get to know each other," the New York Times reported in early 2007. "In the 15 years since, Axelrod has worked through Obama's life story again and again, scouring it for usable political material. Bettylu Saltzman has been supporting and financing Obama's political career since 1992, long before he ran for any office. Saltzman is the only daughter of the super-Zionist Philip Klutznick. In 1992, when Obama was 30 years old, Saltzman told Axelrod and others, "He will be our first black president." Saltzman then commissioned Axelrod to create Obama, the presidential candidate.

Just saying.... If black leaders had a modicum of intelligence they might recognize the potential of the 'weak whites' to band together and eliminate perceived threats. What the PTB cannot have is an awakened and angry white population that is united in its purpose.

Sat, 07/11/2015 - 09:23 | 6298827

Check out dailykenn.com or Colin Flaherty's youtube channel. There is so much black on white crime in this country. From Seattle to Miami, from San Diego to Boston, from Detroit to New Orleans and everywhere blacks live in large numbers, primarily cities.

The violent crimes are usually only covered by local media and never national, unless the perp is white and the victim is black. I believe the reason they suppress the facts is twofold. 1, black on white violence is ubiquitous and quite common. And 2, the last thing the MSM/Gov/Corp complex wants is for whites in America to rekindle tribal feelings and start to unite against the blacks. That would end blacks violence in practically no time. The numbers and history are on the side of whites.

Look to history how our great-grandfathers handled out of control black mob violence. They shot them and burned down their neighborhoods. The reason why crime is spiking is because white MEN aren't doing shit about it. We're all sitting on our hands and outsourcing our responsibilities to the government and blue heroes. That's a stupid and possibly fatal mistake, on both the individual and the societal level.

And until we start speaking their language (IE overwhelming violence with no mercy) this will continue and more whites will suffer at the hands of black sociopaths and psychopaths.

Again, if you think I'm fabricating stuff, please check out Colin Flaherty's youtube uploads. All are videos either recorded by the black attackers, black bystanders cheering it on, or surveillance cameras. Then notice how local reporters either omit the race of the violent criminal, or act like they're surprised when a group of black teens destroys a store and attacks innocent people (often women, children and elderly) -- as if it never happens. They call black on white hate crimes "random attacks" and they call black on white mob beatdowns "fights" rather than brutal assaults.

If you want to avoid violent crime, the numbers tell us that avoiding large concentrations of blacks is the surest way.

Even Mr. List here cannot or will not acknowledge who's committing the majority of the violent crimes for fear of being called a racist.

Liberals think racism means something bad. I call it a survival instinct, just like being able to discern a poisonous mushroom from an edible one, or being able to recognize that a grizzly bear will kill you while the mule deer will just run away from you.

So to you all you social justice warriors: sticks and stones may break my bones but names will never hurt me.

Aviod the groid if you want a peaceful life. Period.

but i agree that they are starting to become victimized..atleasthe social programming is in place so that their kids and grand kids accept it the zioCons are trying to get the blacks to attack the whites and other races so they don't have to do it themselves

The Bolshevik revolution was a messy ordeal and they learned quite alot from it.

State of Emergency: The Third World Invasion and Conquest of America by this writer in 2006 cited researcher Heather Mac Donald of Manhattan Institute. She reported that two-thirds of the 17,000 outstanding fugitive felony warrants in Los Angeles were for illegal immigrants, as were 95 percent of 1,200–1,500 outstanding warrants for homicide. Of 20,000 members of the 18th Street Gang operating across Southern California, 12,000 were illegal immigrants. One of the Beltway Snipers, who terrorized the D.C. area, shooting 13 and killing 10, was a 17-year-old illegal immigrant from Jamaica, John Lee Malvo.

Unarmed Man Shot in Back by Police \(No Riots Expected-He's

The shooting occurred about 3:20 p.m. after Sgt. Jay Cook saw a suspicious man walking down a roadway in the Town of Constable, according to the state police. The sergeant ordered Mr. Sweat to stop, but he broke into a run and the sergeant, a firearms instructor, opened fire, according to the authorities. Mr. Sweat was not armed at the time.
