I don't recall who said it, maybe Mark Twain, "TRUTH IS STRANGER THAN FICTION I fiction at least has to make sense."

Here in Post-Constitutional America, lies and truth may both be senseless.

A long time ago, there was a President who made the cover of a well-known" newsmagazine.

A cartoon about him (1978) had G. Washington saying his famous quote, "I cannot lie." Next to it was a cartoon of Nixon saying, "I cannot tell the truth." The 1978 F quoted in the last cartoon with his toothy grin, "I cannot tell the difference!" Next that political truth! Par for the course, and it's been that way ever since!

I heard this story of an overweight, possibly diabetic, alcoholic who was hospitalized. All that exercise, over eating and drinking had taken its toll. He told his son that this was his wake and that he was going to make changes, serious changes. He died a couple days later.

That's what we can expect. Things will begin to collapse completely (ie empty shelves for necessities, a loaf of bread will cost $10,000) and the leaders will come to us and say the serious this time, changes will be made. But it will be too late. It is already too late.

I feel like I am stuck in the middle of the street, unable to move, watching a big truck barreling down upon me. I brace for the inevitable collision which is going to hurt bad, but the truck never gets to me. It's in a perpetual state of barreling down until it never arrives. That's how I feel. And yes, it is amazing to behold.

I think more Americans feel this deep down in their guts. They all know things are wrong. That we are being lied to, duped and are slaves to the system. They can't put a finger on it directly but they sense and feel it. So they turn to drugs, sports, porn, and other distractions.

They will find an excuse to start WWIII before something like this happens in my opinion. The real reason WWIII starts will be because they know total collapse is the end and the only way to both stave it off and come out in an advantageous position on the other side would be to start a system reset war and win it. I'm not advocating for this outcome means, it would probably be the end of civilization but it is what I think to be more likely.

Sociopaths don't keep their word, and Trump is an unmistakable sociopath, Netanyahu. Most people don't know what a sociopath is. They think it is just a derogatory name, when it is actually a defined psychological type that causes not all of the evil in the human world. Our leaders are almost always sociopaths; you understand sociopathy, you know our leaders are not about to tell us the truth about anything. They will continue to deceive and manipulate, because that is the bedrock of their "success" in becoming a leader.

Check into the evidence that it was the Israeli security the brown shirt right in front of Charlie who used a .38 caliber palm gun with a frangible bullet that did not go through Charlie's neck. He fired from about 10 feet away, through the barrier to rush in to "help" Charlie. Rense.com has video evidence posted, which is pretty convincing, and aligns with Charlie deciding to cut himself free of Israeli control.

It's clear to me that Charlie Kirk wasn't even shot. The evidence is the many dogs that died. No one on security drew their weapons and tried to identify the threat.

His chief of staff, a barely post-pubescent boy named Mikey, didn't even flinch, put his pants on, and strolled out the back.

Another top staffer went immediately around the back and took video while "the body" was taken off to the black SUV. Then he went back under the tent, got up on the very same chair that he had been sitting in (which was miraculously not slick and dripping with blood), and took down the camera that was just behind CK and removed the memory card.

There's tons more, but the old Sherlock Holmes angle is damning enough.

That wasn't a camera behind CK. That was a holograph projector. Go figure. This entire scene is like a 1,000 piece jigsaw puzzle of our once beholden pure blue sky. You're right. It was a holograph projector. Take a peek at my substack for all the details plus a couple of (free, hopefully humorous) articles about the post-production ruse. The reason it "matters" is because reality matters. He was killed in a professional job. This really, really, really matters because of what it says about the power that had him murdered in broad daylight in front of several thousand people of all of us. That matters more than most because it shows We the People, are actually dealing with. Reality matters.

Sorry, the reality is that there is insufficient evidence to demonstrate that he was deleted in broad daylight.

No evidence of a real wound, no exit wound, no blood spatter, drip or pool, no funeral, no burial, no death certificate, no autopsy.

But you are absolutely right that reality matters. Where you and I differ is that I can no longer assert that anything I have seen or heard through a screen device bears any resemblance to "reality."

Charlie Kirk's memorial service was more GOP rally than anything else, complete with a woman dabbing her eyes but bravely smiling and embracing Trump. It was very strange and the fact that there was no news about the young man who supposedly confessed, the autopsy or any investigation is weirder.

Obama's library/shrine looks like high rise prison and the White House rose garden like a restaurant patio. It's a farce that's not funny.

It would seem that significant events like Charlie Kirk's (911, Sandy Hook, Boston bombing, Floyd, Covid, etc) are orchestrated with almost theater like precision to introduce confusion, frustration, anger, and distrust. Perhaps that is the main goal of all of these. Not the suppression of primary responses (Kill the Terrorists, Ban the Guns, Stop White Power, Put a Mask on) but important emotional responses that require the suspension of common sense and critical thinking. It requires the viewer to refuse to ask questions. To willingly participate in lies. To accept "I know you know that we know you're lying" and we're gonna pretend it's fine. I imagine that the majority of people just want to turn off their brains and just go along to get along, but the government will throw it hard in your face, another Magic Bullet story or with the even more ridiculous Epstein. That one in particular is DoubleThink par Excellence! Jeffery Epstein is a lone nut pedo! T Jefferey Epstein has always been a lone nut pedo!

So I suspect we're at Solzhenitsyn levels of lies that are meant to maintain the states power through people's participation in these lies while at the same time demoralizing those that are beginning to see through the cracks, and frustrating those "in the know" that they're powerless.

You're wrong about your facts on Andrew. It will take an act of parliament to strip him of his titles. For now he has relinquished them. He can't be removed as a "prince" because he was born as one. He has an all-ironclad lease on Royal Lodge in Windsor Great Park. He must be given to give it up. Right now he is negotiating to leave Royal Lodge if he moves into Frogmore Cottage and Fergie gets to move into another. Both are in Windsor Great Park, a royal property. He is not banished from royal property. It is wise (and very easy) to fact check before writing false information.

Update November 1st: To counter the MSM news out of the UK that he was not evicted from Royal Lodge. He vacated his lease with an offer of a home on the royal Sandringham estate (where Diana was born), a sum of cash, and a stipend for life. His lease was ironclad until 2078, and would have been a part of his estate after his death. It is unconstitutional for the King to revoke his title of "prince"...if you believe in the ridiculous notion that some folks are born royal. The NWO is just making things up as they go along... something you are seeing a lot of lately. The important thing for the elite, is that they do not stand in the way of William's role in the NWO.

Even though the royal family loathed Wallace Simpson, George VI did not withhold the title of Duchess from her after she married him, although he could withhold a HRH from her. Dudley Forward, the Duke of Windsor, revealed that the Duke broke down sobbing when he received that news.

You know what you want about Trump, but most likely your beliefs will not be an accurate reflection of reality. We live in a world of elaborate deception. Trump, Epstein, the CIA, and the Mossad all work for the top dog (or dogs) that I call the Jewish Rothschild cabal. None of our "leaders" are even close to the ballpark when it comes to the power and control this tiny cabal exerts over society.

Alleged list is more accurate. So IF there is a "list" then what? I don't see that Trump supports Ukraine, he is not sending tomahawks thankfully. I think he is trying to make every one "happy" until he figures out what's going to work to fix it. Why would we support the bombing of Iran nuke sites? The madness you speak of has been directed at him for the past how many years? Who among us could take that kind of treatment? No one.

Blessings may come in the afterlife. Zechariah 12 and dozens of others chapters/verses talk about this, really well.

I voted for Trump and am behind 80% of what he's doing, however, he has sealed his fate and continues forward dividing up land that God himself gave Israel.

You don't get to come into my house and divvy up the furniture. You don't get to create lines as to what portion of the house is to be given to anyone— even orphans. You don't get to hold the chalk!

God is really clear about this. Israel knows it. We should, too

If someone says a place is the very apple of their eye, what all do we do to protect our children?

Even if our kid is being horrible, how far will we go to protect him? Say he's on drugs for 10 years, and a thief comes to steal his letter jacket and car. Do we just allow it because our kid is a loser?

No. We hang onto it for when the prodigal

Paul is clearer. Romans 2:28-29 ("For he is NOT a Jew who is one outwardly... But he is a Jew who is one inwardly... of the heart, by the Spirit..."), Romans 9:6-10 ("...they are all Israel who are [biologically] descended from Israel..."), and Galatians 4:21-5:1 ("...the present Jerusalem [of the flesh]... is in slavery with her children..."). I.e., those who are under the old covenant (which was never kept by anyone, except Christ) ally themselves with the great harlot whose house was left to her desolate (Matt 23:38).

And that's just a smattering of the stuff Scofield tried to airbrush out of the Scriptures from Genesis to Revelation. God cannot look favorably on sin not washed by Christ's blood. The apple of His eye is ONLY those born again to new life in Christ: His church, His bride, by grace alone through faith alone, in Christ alone, in all times and places

Indeed, Steve. Many of the remaining Jews fled to Bagdad, where there was a thriving Jewish community made up of those who never left Babylon. They went to China in the 1800s and pretty much had a monopoly on all trade until the Communist Revolution, but they never lost their grip, and still control the commies there.

Julian The Apostate loathed Christians. He bankrolled an attempt to rebuild the Third Temple in 363 AD. He encouraged dispersed Jews to return to Jerusalem to help with the rebuild. As Jews, both men and women, were working on the temple, a mighty earthquake (search: Gallilee earthquakes May 18th-19th 363 AD) destroyed all their work. Flames shot from the earth. Many were killed. The survivors died that night when the roof collapsed on their sleeping heads. A cross appeared in the heavens. There are three historical accounts of the event which were written by pagans. God clearly made it known that day, that the temple was finished with the Jews ...once and for all.

Old Testament history means nothing without other historical evidence to back it up. It is my experience that evangelical Christians are not interested in history from non-biblical sources. In my experience they have no critical thinking skills and often fall prey to their own delusional beliefs. We saw how most of the US did not have the discernment to see that the scamdemic was a scam. Some even profaned their houses of worship by injecting their people with a satanic death jab. Zionist "Christians" give genuine Christians a bad name.

There are many examples to choose from, but my favorite is the 2020 report by research University of Alaska Fairbanks (UAF) following a four-year computer modeling study of the Trade Center Building 7 collapse on 9/11.

"Our study found that the fires in WTC 7 could not have caused the observed collapse," the principal investigator said. "The only way it could have fallen in the observed manner is by simultaneous failure of every column."

I thought at the time: oh boy, this will set the cat among the pigeons. Not speculation, not "conspiracy theory." A conclusion by academic scientists that WTC Building 7 was a controlled demolition!

Well, the finding lasted about two days in the media. In my recollection, no Establishment even tried to refute it. The story vanished in the enveloping silence. How many people even remember it now?

To give you an idea of what we are up against I shall quote a spe to the Knesset by the dreadful and physically ugly Menahim Begin whe prime minister in 1982. "Our race is the Master Race. We are divine go planet. We are as different from the inferior races as they are from inse fact, compared to our race, other races are beasts and animals, cattle Other races are considered as human excrement. Our destiny is to rule inferior races. Our earthly kingdom will be ruled by our leader with a ro The masses will lick our feet and serve us as our slaves." I cannot go ir details, but this has been a long-term plan, which means that peaceful existence is not possible and one should not forget that Noahide Law i constitute of US law and could be implemented at any time (The US ar to my knowledge - are the only countries where this applies). In the US warehouses exist holding 30,000 guillotines. This could be and possib fight to the death.

I'm sure plenty of people are wondering where are Charlie Kirk's parents, siblings, cousin uncles, grandparents, classmates or non-TPA associates and friends. I haven't read or seen comments from any of the aforementioned people. Did all of those people kick the bucket 9/10/25? Or were all of them estranged from Charlie after the TPA biz got rolling? Or may folks, if any of them exist preferred to avoid this soap opera drama. Is Charlie dead or alive sure on this end.

Great essay Don.

But I think you answered your own questions many times over. First of all the Good Ol' US has been under Zionist influence, control, whatever, for decades now. This is no surprise. All that talk about "Barak Obama is about to be indicted for treason. Donald Trump wants to annex Greenland and/or Canada. And take back the Panama Canal" etc. is theater to keep people distracted from real intentions:

That Charlie Kirk was assassinated, taken out, removed, put in Valhalla, whatever, because he was starting to reach young people across the college campuses like no one else...getting the message for themselves. Cannot be allowed. Shut him down before he really gets rolling, kinda like the people you've been writing about for a number of years.

It's plain by now that no one gives a spit about Epstein. Not the rich, not the poor and not the left of the forgotten middle class who are barely hanging on. Epstein was a no good, low class pimp. (A rich pimp yes, but still a pimp). And I've never known anyone who has any empathy for the poor except for a few black rappers. As far as those do-gooders who sought to expose the dirt on Epstein and got a change of conscience, well I've also never known anyone to overturn a dead man's decisions. (Except in JFK's case).

And as for "the last stretch here", yes we are "at the precipice of total collapse".

But we have all this theater to keep our minds reeling. With more mRNA vaccines and Digital Tech IDs on the way to keep us safe. Come back to your faith, Don.

I pretty much assume everything is a lie until/unless proven otherwise, especially if it comes from some governmental gasbag. The Orange is not America first. He cares nothing for anyone but himself and Is-rael (and I guess his own family). I think everything that's going on lately is just to distract people from Thomas Massie's accumulating enough congressional votes to get the files released. The Orange does not want that. Melania is currently being sued by an author (Michael Wolff) over something to do with her ties to Epstein (suit filed in NY). I think this government shutdown is continuing to avoid the release of those files. Just my opinion. Yes, The Orange is in those files.

As for Charlie, I am still not convinced that he's dead. Was there a burial? What about an autopsy? Where's the bullet? Why did his security team behave so strangely after the incident? Why did the guys body slammed Charlie to the ground (if the sketchy, weird, AI-like video snippets are believed). I'm thinking that's not the best thing to do to a guy who just got shot in the neck. Why did they cement over the "crime scene" the day after the incident? Why do there appear to be different Charlies that have played that role over the years? Why do there appear to be different Erikas to have played the role of his airhead wife over the years? Too many unanswered questions and too much hinky-ness surrounding that whole thing. I don't buy any of it. I really don't like that they are pushing him as some kind of martyr. That's just ridiculous.

We have definitely been in deep trouble for a long time. I agree that this country cannot withstand much more. It's imploding.

Man that was a loaded article DJ! If someone is still in the dark of the reality of things....if doesn't open their eyes I don't know what will! If ya don't mind I'd like to elaborate a little Israel. It's IMPERATIVE to look at Israel from a Biblical perspective or we can easily end up wrong side of God. God chose this group of people to introduce Himself to the rest of the know throughout Scripture that He uses the weak, society misfits a lot to accomplish His Probably main reason God chose them is they are such a tiny nation but through God Hir it is He who makes them mighty in power, technology, smarts, wealth etc. He bestows a s blessing upon them because He made an everlasting covenant with them(we don't won't break that or that means He could break His promises to us). Even though as a society ar government they are some of the most anti-godly people right now, God can't break His The main reason they are as bad as they are is because God tells us that He put a partial of the heart on the Jews for rejecting Jesus as their Messiah, but will turn His full attentio them during Daniel's 70th week(which I believe is knocking on the door) and says He has that He will save before Jesus' 2nd coming. One last thing to show you all how important God....all those who are believers and trust and follow Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of will have a final place of residence called the New Jerusalem. This is the place Jesus has prepare for us...anyway we are told this place is 1500 miles wide, 1500 miles long and 1500 miles high(just think airplanes fly at 5 or 6 miles high) and will come down from heaven after Je from Jerusalem for 1000 years, the Father will burn up the existing heavens and earth and them a new and the New Jerusalem comes down to the new earth. Sorry, little rabbit trail is when Jesus is telling us this through John, we are told that there will be a huge wall around the place and it will have 12 gates(that never shut) 3 on each side. An angel is at each door, each having the names of the 12 tribes of Israel and the wall will have 12 foundation stones and names of the 12 apostles will be on them. If Israel wasn't important, they wouldn't be on the everlasting home. Thanks and may the Lord lift up His face and shine upon you and yours

Also in 1913 the 501(c) designation was created as part and parcel, under which all Ameri churches would have to register in order to continue to operate.

In 1916 the personal income tax.

The Dallas Theological Seminary was funded on Zionist money in 1924, they're among th pushers of the heretical Dispensationalism.

The Scofield Bible, also funded with Zionist money at the hands of full blown Zionist Sam Untermyer, was published in 1909. Sorry about the delayed response. I've been swamped.

This is but one of the many smoking guns so to speak. The first thing that we ha remember is that whenever anything such as this occurs, is that it's almost cert: false-flag/psyop/both. Much as I did with the scamdemic straight out of the gate Boston Bombing, Sandy Hook, most (never say never/all) of the "school shootin Vegas, 9-11, OKC, etc. etc., et al. and etc.

The stadium was in fact rented out for that day by his organization, that's been | course the their [very delayed] response was that he was scheduled to speak th no idea whether he was doing arenas that size, these things are something I spe time on as they're all tangential to what's really going on, if not entirely tertiary.

Donald, well said. We need to face the fact that we have been locked in our present confi because it only benefits those holding the levers of power. Adaptation is only allowed on 1 margins, as anything that could change the distribution of wealth and power is not acceptable to those pulling the levers. Charles Hugh Smith says it like this in his bo "Investing In Revolution". "Those benefitting from extreme inequality mask the resulting i with artifices designed to persuade those losing ground that they're still benefiting from the status quo. They point to our abundance of products, entertainments, and ultra-goodies while ignoring our debilitating malnourishment of mind, body, and spirit."

One more quote from the inimitable Albert Jay Knock that describes our government inst "Like all predatory and parasitic institutions, its first instinct is that of self-preservation. enterprises are first towards preserving its own life and, second, increasing its own power enlarging its own scope of its activity. Very good article, Donald Jeffreys. I only disagree with the title. It should be called:

'Charlie Kirk, Epstein and the JEWISH Cabal' instead of Charlie Kirk, Epstein and the ZION

People should stop using the words "Zionism", "Zionist" and Zionist". Those words have l

Zionism was created by Herzl in 1897, but the Jews have always hated the non-Jews, Goy
Amalek to them for thousands of years and have been commanded by their God to exterr Amalek.

Hans, I believe you are mostly right, but I also believe you are somewhat wrong. Zion Jews, Israelis are typically Jews, the Rothschilds are Jews (or are they even human?) are subsets of Jews (Orthodox, Conservative, Reform, Hassidic, etc.). I tend to see trouble-making, con-artist and criminal Jews not as Jews but as sociopaths. Sociopathy is hereditary, as is what I tend to see as Jewishness. I see Jews as an in-bred tribe of people who value sociopathy and select for it in their reproductive practices. This means preferring those who exhibit greed, selfishness, deceit, arrogance, a superiority complex, disrespect for others, lack of morality, and little to no empathy (someone like Netanyahu). So Jews care more about religion, but about sociopathy, and the Jewish religion confirms this, being rooted in sociopathic thinking. The God of the Torah or Old Testament is an obvious example -- angry, vengeful, murderous, demanding obedience and subservience, boastful, hypocritical, and even hateful. The Jews of today's Israel are not the Jews of the Bible 2000 years ago; they are a melting pot of sociopathic peoples who have adopted the mask of "Judaism" to benefit from the descriptions of Jews found in the Bible (like calling themselves "God's Chosen People", the ultimate in arrogant superiority). The common denominator, the glue that holds them together, is the psychology of the sociopath, which allows them to successfully prey upon non-sociopathic goyim as clandestine, intra-species parasites.

Chico, thank you for your reply.

Zionists are not necessarily Jews. U.S. President Roosevelt told Stalin at the Fek Yalta Conference that he was a Zionist and asked if Stalin was one.

U.S. President Joe Biden in 2022 in Israel: "You need not be a Jew to be a Zionist
Zionism was founded by Herzl and his gang of atheist Zionists in 1896 and it be redundant on May 14, 1948, when Ben-Gurion, Israel's first Prime Minister declared ISRAEL on that day a JEWISH STATE.

Roughly half of the Jews in the world today are secular.

The world always had a Jewish problem. The Jews were already expelled from E 1,200 B.C.. Spain's Queen Isabella expelled the Jews in 1492. And on and on.

Yes, you are right about Jewish sociopathy. Is it hereditary?

ARE JEWS A RACE? THE SHORT ANSWER IS NO — JEWS ARE NOT A RACE.

Jews include individuals of enormously diverse origins and physical appearance the idea that Jews could easily be designated a race implausible.

Really outstanding post again, Donald. (p.s. by way of Frontnieuws.com of course.) Comp how you get the facts in perspective so well and thus provide highly informative essays. I also for providing a civilized platform for discussions and opinions. Triggered by these facts started delving a bit more in the sickening acts that humans perpetrate on their fellow humans such a short and recent historical timespan. Nothing but terror has been piling up, and to increasingly higher rate and volume. Every day a new rancid ploy, like there is no tomorrow often in plain sight. Of course, this murderous deception has been going on for centuries, nowadays it's become a way of life that rapidly desensitizes humanity. The Neurotic Ones scheming like crazy wailing banshees day and night. For neurotic people as they are - neurotic - this must get harder and harder to maintain. You know a cornered cat makes weird and Armageddon comes to mind: if WE cannot have it our way, we will destroy it! As for the wayward little helpers that eat from Daddy's hand, they too appear to be infected by the neurotic behavior. You'd think they don't know if they're coming or going anymore. But for Trump pays the bills handsomely. And doing the bidding for the Neurotic Ones has proven lucrative throughout the centuries, with the Balfour Act as the consolidation of the parasitic murderous power in the heart of neuroticism and oil winnings. What's striking nowadays is many programs are started in MAGA-land, but a few days later they are forgotten. What happened to DOGE for instance, it is still up and running? And so much more. Here and there a few are tossed. But the only programs that seem to take root are the ones that serve the powers-that-be the most. And Trump and his wild-eyed and tattooed stooges must deliver. I might be over something, please tell me and I stand corrected. A source of great intellectual aptitude is MacDonald. See his review of a book by Bendersky: <http://www.kevinmacdonald.net/benderskyrev.htm> for more info. Kevin has been right on a long time, wrongly lambasted by public opinion and the media as an "anti-semitic" (what is, that entire middle east is semites), but he simply states the facts. And so did Bendersky although unwittingly, about the Jewish conspiracy that already existed in full force. It's a testament that brave military men, retired ones as well, who dared to speak out so frankly against the manipulation of US presidents and the public by this perverted class of humans, were made. Where are these men nowadays? Kash, what are you looking at??

Actually, if a story doesn't make sense, then it is intended to broadcast policy to the administrative superstructure.

During the 1990's I read over 1,000 broadly-defined English-law / commercial-law court cases covering a 300 year period. The most substantive and consistent anomaly that I discovered was that the more objectively-irrational and transparently-fraudulent a decision from a multi-judge appeal, the more likely it is to be unanimous. From the position of the broadly-defined legal profession, the rule is: If it's bat-sh*t crazy, then you know it is policy that is not to be questioned. That clear?

Well, I don't know who shot Charlie Kirk but I do know he was not shot with a 30-06 round. The force of impact from a 30-06 bullet would have blown Charlie's neck apart. Mr Kirk was shot with a frangible, sub-sonic round. Of course, Tyler Robinson might be the shooter, he used a different rifle and disposed it in a deep hole. Robinson was an engineering major. If he was the shooter, he might have placed the old 30-06 in a box with inscribed cartridges for the Police / FBI to find and declare it the murder weapon only to realize later there can NEVER be a ballistic match. The case would be thrown out of court.

I suspect the United States of America went off the rails following WWII when the powers took up the mantle of Western World Imperium from the failing British and French Empire at Bretton-Woods. America reached its cultural zenith from 1946 to that November day in Dallas when JFK was killed. Think about what happened after JFK was killed ... the Vietnam War, the Great Society debacle (which destroyed the black family), militant Feminism arose, Watergate, etc. It's been mostly downhill in America since 1963. As you suggest we are in the late-stage empire. The Orange Buffoon's White House ballroom project symbolizes it all.

The whole thing has become one big long-running dark farce, and gets ever crazier as time progresses. I also have been expecting some catastrophic implosion for many years, but the show goes on, with each distracting scam exceeding the last in mind-staggering unbelieveability. I used to think, after examining its ponzi-like structure, Social Security would be gone by my turn came around. But I've been collecting it for 16 years now. Who woulda thunk? It's like magic.

And the cast of characters has kept right up with the plot. Just look at Patel's unnerving, intense stare. Or Hegseth's tough guy tattoos, above his oddly localized patch of chest hair. And at the top of the pyramid, of course, is the Orange Menace. His appearance and demeanor could have been more garish and gauche, while he contradicts himself on a daily basis with no apparent self-awareness. The loose cannon schtick goes well with his visual presentation. God save us because no other salvation seems to be on hand.

I'll just note that his latest insult to public sensibility, the above-ground East Wing replacement project, keeps the limelight off the fact that the Presidential Command bunker, sitting right in the middle of the city, is being redone and expanded concurrently. Hardly a mention of that fact in all the misdirection, screaming and hysteria. History indicates the exact same distraction was employed back when the first iteration was installed. Is real war on the calendar now, just as it was back then?

Great article Donald, thank you. Over 50 years ago I recall thinking about the terrible situation of our country, with all the moron politicians lying and the media cheering them on. I was thinking out loud to myself one day back then, and the conclusion that popped into my head, was "Absolutely Satanic". Now that I am an old duffer, I am not particularly inclined toward any dogmatic religion, but I believe in the "Great Spirit", as the American Indians called him, or whatever. I also believe that "Satan", the father of lies" is for real. You mentioned Christie used to think she was an honorable person, but after I heard her proclaim that "Jews were Chosen People", I realized she is just another 'Climber", who will do anything, say anything her way to power. She, and all her Demonic liar cohorts, are leading us to destruction.

Jesus said to the "Chosen" Ones: "You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning and he stood not in truth; because truth was not in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh his own. For he is a liar, and the father thereof." 8:41-44

I suspect the unitary is purposely withholding food stamps to cause riots in the cities. Tru declares insurrection and martial law. Trump can get his 3rd term or Vance can take over Or better yet AOC and Mamdani in 2028, then the martial law will become extremely usef seem all parties are trying to drive us into collapse, after all we are the main obstacle to V government. It's fairly obvious. No matter who "wins" the national pissing contest we're c in, regular citizens lose and globalist WEF win handsomely.

I definitely agree with the first part. The federal troops were put in place in major cities for a reason. I also agree that martial law is desired, preferably after violence initiated by a ragtag group with questionable resolve that they can crush brutally and totally on victors. We want to crush a few hundred publicly so that a million don't rise up and all is lost. They are playing for all the marbles now.

Hi Donald. I just went back and read your article again. It sounds like you're as calm and angry as the rest of us are. Yes, we are living through some kind of psychological warfare and it's highly stressful. To be awake right now is to be in a constant state of emotional pain. The question is, how does the individual make the pain go away? I would choose to name a single culprit without evidence and then force fit the available evidence to that narrative. You certainly wouldn't be alone. The more difficult but I think authentic path is to simply stay curious and learn what you can a piece at a time. Where there is a connection to be made, it's a prize.

The available evidence does not support a U.S. government beholden to Israel in the way you describe. The relationship is more complex. America dictates Israel's activities to a great extent. Israel provides America with intelligence and other militarily valuable services.

As you thanked me for reading, I thank you for responding to my comment. I appreciate the chance to be heard and taken seriously as much as the next person.

At the end of the day, our opinions may not matter to the powers that be, but it does matter that we have the space to say them.

This whole "Charlie Kirk isn't really dead" nonsense is a troll designed to sow cc and distraction and pull people off the scent and away from the truth of what re happened:

Charlie was betrayed by his own people in TPUSA because $$ talks and they we totally dependent upon the Jewish-Zionist Israel-first billionaire donation gravy Charlie was PROVABLY distancing himself from Israel, and the donors were resp withholding the gravy.

It was an existential crisis for the TPUSA grifters, but also for Israel; the last thin needed was for Charlie to go to all these campuses and denounce Israel in front impressionable conservative minds. What was also more dangerous was Charlie Megan Kelly and disparaging Israel, as well as disparaging Israel to Ben Shapiro' day before he (Charlie) was killed. This couldn't be allowed to continue.

Israel pulled off the hit, TPUSA insiders like his "bestie" Mikey McCoy, helped fa "Tyler Robinson" is a patsy, if he's even a real person and not just an actor playir of "Tyler."

The focus should be on HOW they pulled it off.

I have written about the inconsistencies in the case, Chucky, and how so m to Israel. But there are the too familiar aspects associated with the event th seen before, lack of a blood trail leading to the SUV where Kirk was carried bizarre behavior of his wife, etc. People have every reason to question whe incidents are as they are presented to us. There is no reason to believe any our state controlled media reports.

Did you see the immediate bleed-out? It was like a gushing geyser. Could it be possible that the majority of his blood had already bled out by the time they carried his body to the SUV? Do we have a zoomed-in shot of the ground/pavement between the stage and SUV to observe any blood?

In my estimation, the bizarre behavior of his wife is more indicative of her involvement in the assassination plot than to him still being alive and well and living in Las Vegas, like Elvis. Did you see the genuine grief on his parents' faces during the Medal of Freedom ceremony? That wasn't fake. He was their only child.

I don't believe what our state-controlled media says: that the tranny-look-alike "Robinson" shot and killed Charlie Kirk with a .30-06 Mauser rifle from approximately 140 yards away, "admitted" to the crime in detailed texts to his "trans wife." I was subsequently turned into authorities by his father. That's a supernatural story. But that doesn't mean I have to also disbelieve that he was shot and killed by someone and is dead as a doornail.

We're being lied to because Israel controls the US government levels - federal, state, and even increasingly local - and they cover up the truth of their hit and the reasons for it, or else they would be blown and the vast numbers of the public who aren't with hate for normalcy would demand justice and accountability. You know from your JFK work why the cover-up happens and is effectuated. It's the same here, albeit with different circumstances: a different set of facts, as well as much more advanced technology allows us to accurately assess the evidence and communicate each other very quickly after the incident.

We have no way of knowing that. I suppose only Charlie's phone carrier or the FBI hacker would be able to find out for sure.

I know sometimes in say, a family text thread, I have copied it to myself, edited it for whatever reason, then put it in a thread.

I also know that every single solitary person who sent me a simpleton message saying Charlie Kirk is racist or fascist or — all the negative people were saying, the video they sent was only a PARTIAL video. When I dug I found the video in its entirety, it ALWAYS said the exact opposite.

People forget that anything taken out of context can sound awful. Or people remember that, and use it as clickbait on social media.

We would all do well to remember that many of these substacks, tik toks, etc. are MONETIZED, therefore, authors/content creators frequently write/say/portray a divisive mindset— not because it's true, but because it gets clicks.

We basically PAY to PLAY inside our echo chambers. Sad state of affairs.

Also, it seems that the trouble wasn't started by Israel. They have a right back.

If someone barged into your home and killed someone in your family, if you fought back and killed them, few would fault you. Yet Israel is harassed continuously for fighting back ever since Oct. 7?

Did it not occur to you that MSMedia is skewing the truth? Hamas is well known to lie. They are a terrorist organization. They don't fight fair. That kid video with the overweight mom and the normal weight brother turned out to be a child who had some disease. If he was starving it was because the mother was eating his food. She was definitely NOT starved.

Israel shields its children. Hamas uses its children as shields. They're really the same.

Gaza repeatedly makes promises but then, given an inch, decides it wants the whole. Gaza wasn't given that land. The thief wielding a gun in your home was in your home.

If you give him your kitchen and he promises to stay only in the kitchen and not be a nuisance, it's only a matter of time before he wants a TV. He'll take the TV or take over the den. Then he's weary of sleeping on the kitchen floor. He'll take a bedroom. Before you know it, he's got the whole

Yet there it is, the bible, a best seller for centuries, a comfort guidebook, a life "how-to" manual for millions, year after year. A book so marvelous that even if you don't believe a word, if you strive to live as though it were true you would glean so much. A book so full of promises and prophecies true (I think we are at 2000+ prophecies which have come to pass now?) that even if you think it's nothing better than a door stopper, if you sat and read it with an open mind, and a quick prayer to your creator to reveal himself to you as you read, you'd be bound to change your mind about it.

It's a book that tells us we are on the last days. Satan has been waiting for a time to get some new recruits and to do some real damage, to deceive as many as he is able.

After a few more prophecies come true, just a short time from now earth will
