I would have to agree. The average American, due to willful ignorance, cogr dissonance, cognitive damage by way of water fluoridation, the poisonous | manufactured addictions, etc., has no idea that the government doesn't ca them, or it's citizens here, or of the world. Since WW2, the U.S. has overthro governments of over 50 countries, killing 10s of millions in the most unfatho ways they can find, without losing a minute of sleep. I believe it was lcke th they are not like us, or the average human being, for they are completely de any sense of compassion, empathy, or decency. And with every heinous ac culling, they tell us it's for the greater good. And sadly, their God is Lucifer.

Years ago I read a book called "The NORP Think Factor", written by a judge. NORP stands for Normal Ordinary Responsible Person. The thesis of the book is that criminals do not necessarily think like normal ordinary responsible people. And assuming that they do is counterproductive as they go through the criminal justice system. Well, it is clear that they are criminals. THEY do not think like we do. So yes, they are willing to kill others to get people who stand in their way or are dedicated to exposing their crimes.

First of all, I don't believe in coincidence. I worked with a gentleman from Malaysia who was personal friends with the captain of the Malaysia flight. Their families were friends. He was furious when the character assassination of the captain began. NOT a jihadist Muslim. There is a system on commercial and some corporate aircraft called "non-interruptible autopilot" which can allow control of the aircraft from a ground telemetry. If the aircraft is taken over by the outside forces the pilots cannot override the system. Boeing has denied the system exists(does anyone believe anything coming from Boeing these days?) I believe the system is hardwired into the aircraft which would allow the pilots to disable it if they knew which circuit breakers to pull. If you think this system doesn't exist think about a drone operator sitting in Las Vegas controlling a Predator 8,000 miles away. IT EXISTS!! (((They))) can pretty much take out anyone anytime. And, they don't care how many people they have to murder to get one

"In Memoriam: Michael J. Gonzalez

Date of Publication: 25 July 2024

July 5, 1961 – July 23, 2024

The world of orthomolecular medicine mourns the loss of pioneering scientist and advocate J. Gonzalez, DSc, NMD, PhD, who will be remembered for his extensive academic contributions and his commitment to improving human health.

Michael Gonzalez earned multiple degrees, including Doctorates in Nutritional Medicine (Kennedy University), Health Sciences (Lafayette University), and Nutritional Biochemistry and Cancer Biology (Michigan State University). He held academic positions as Professor of Nutrition at the University of Puerto Rico, and Adjunct Faculty at the Universidad Central del Caribe. Dr. Gonzalez was also a Fellow of the American College of Nutrition.

During his career, Dr. Gonzalez served as a consultant for the Riordan Clinic and the Centro Regenerativo, and as nutrition consultant for the National Basketball Team in Puerto Rico. His contributions earned him numerous awards, including membership in the Puerto Rican Academy of Arts and Sciences, and induction into the Orthomolecular Medicine Hall of Fame (2016).

A key figure in the development of non-toxic cancer treatments, Dr. Gonzalez's research on intravenous vitamin C as an anti-cancer agent was groundbreaking. He co-authored over 100 scientific publications, introducing innovative concepts such as the bioenergetic theory of carcinogenesis and metabolic correction. His books, including 'I Have Cancer What Should I Do?' (Basic Health, 2009), and 'New Insights into Vitamin C and Cancer' (Springer, 2014) offer readers a strong foundation for understanding integrative approaches to cancer treatment."

Yes, thought too that those two flights (amongst others) are extremely suspicious, in fact I felt like those were targeted if you followed other than mainstream news about those

Also if you are a researcher/doctor/scientist living in the US and tell people you have a cure for cancer, you'll either shoot yourself in the chest 6 times and throw yourself back feet / 15 meters into the river - clear suicide there folks, right...

Second one I remember off the cuff was way worse, whole family (kids included) killed with shotgun, research secure-wipe deleted from offsite servers, home computers all destroyed and burned. Clear family murder-suicide here again, nothing to see here folks, quickly look, it's latest celebrity scandal with dirty pics !

(those two cancer researcher murders happened probably about ~15-20+ years ago, links anymore, did not use to back up interesting articles to multiple archives like now, original sites likely long gone too, but whoever read about them back then, probably still remembers too)

We now automatically assume skulduggery when such incidents and 'mysterious deaths'

The same as our instant reaction to the vast increase in mysterious 'Sudden Deaths' ("Die unexpectedly") cases. If the jab doesn't kill you, I believe your Life Expectancy will have been reduced.

The same reaction to the masses of mysterious fires that occur in warehouses holding food. Eradicate all who dare to question poisonous injections called 'vaccines'. Or the mass depopulation program organised by those behind Fauci's GoF modification of Coronavirus and the deadly injections that suspiciously appeared soon after Covid was released.

And all the while, Pfizer, Moderna, etc, continue to depopulate the planet with falsely FDA authorised deadly injections called 'vaccines'. Don't take another injection until ZERO LIA has been removed!

Thank you Will, for taking the time to send me such an interesting and informative information relating to the specific air disaster that we 'Proud Conspiracy Theorists' immediately concluded was related to the 'undesirable Doctors on that flight who were going to a meeting that could have further impacted our suspicions that they might have needed to be 'disposed of' by those with a massive financial interest in hiding the truth about mRNA 'vaccines' being UNSAFE and INEFFECTIVE!

Whilst the video shows the planer model's characteristics from an expert opinion, it does not retract my suspicions that skulduggery might not have been a reason for the tragedy.

Before Covid was created during 2019 to depopulate the planet, along with the quick invention of the supposed 'VACCINE', I would have been far more inclined to believe the video's suggestion that it could have been weather related (Ice).

Since 2020, my self preservation instincts force me to assume the New World Order's intent on depopulating the planet and all who get in their way are terminated.

I understand your concern that I might be too keen to throw anti-covid and anti-vaccine dirt whenever there is an opportunity to do so, but I will keep an open mind on this particular tragedy. I remain suspicious of outside influence applied by those intent on hiding the truth about vaccines, and in particular DEADLY unproven mRNA vaccines.

Thank you for your time and effort in trying to educate me on this specific occasion. I will be happy to receive further evidence if you feel it might be useful.

Thank you Mark. His copy-pasting that comment everywhere in these comments sections leads me to further believe he's a shill of some sort. How's that for conspiracy? "Possibly" planting red-herrings and redirecting.

He wants us to hold our speculation until we know more? No one could ever speculate for the next 50 years of the Trump assassination then, given he the info is kept from the public. We can't ever know ALL the details first because they do what they do purposefully in a way to leave reasonable doubts AND they have the availability of news coverage and full disclosure of facts. The fact that this is planting an alternative possibility is fine if it was posted just once as a comment by a commenter. But instead he is posting it repeatedly as a reply under every other comment. That's suspicious to me.

I appreciated YOUR reply much more.

Your copy-pasting this same reply everywhere in this comments section leads to further suspicions that you may be a shill of some sort. How's that for conspiracy premature speculation? You may "possibly" be planting red-herrings and redirecting the benefit of some organization.

You want us to hold our speculation until we know more? Impossible when they release ANY info to the public and the media won't cover the story. No one could have ANY speculation for the next 50 years of the Trump assassination if we have more information, given how much of the info is kept from the public. We can't know ALL the details "first" because they keep it from the public on purpose! So cause reasonable doubts.

"Michael G. Gonzalez, NMD, DSc, PhD

1960 - 2024

Hall of Fame 2016

Michael J. Gonzalez is Professor at the Medical Sciences Campus, University of Puerto Rico and adjunct faculty at the University of Western States. He earned a Bachelor Degree in Biology and Chemistry (Catholic University), a Masters in Cellular Biology and Biophysics (Nova University), another Masters in Nutrition and Public Health (University of Puerto Rico). He has a Doctorate in Nutritional Medicine (John F. Kennedy University). He also has a Doctorate in Health Sciences (Lafayette University), and another Doctorate in Nutritional Biochemistry and Cancer Biology (Michigan State University). He completed a Post-Doctoral Fellowship in Geriatrics at the University of Medicine, University of Puerto Rico. Dr. Gonzalez is a Fellow of the American College of Nutrition and has authored over 200 scientific publications. He serves as a member on many scientific Editorial Boards, including the Journal of Orthomolecular Medicine and Alternative Medicine. He has served as consultant for several companies and has been responsible for designing formulations of nutritional supplements and pharmaceutical products. He has obtained several research awards for his work on Nutrition and Cancer. In December 2013, Dr. Gonzalez was named Distinguished Ponceño in Medicine. In 2015 he was selected as member to the prestigious Puerto Rican Academy of Arts and Sciences and to the Iberoamerican Academy of Cultural Sciences.

Dr. Gonzalez has been a leader in the development of non-toxic chemotherapy treatment for cancer. The group published the first Phase-I clinical study utilizing intravenous vitamin C treatment of terminal cancer patients in 2005, and also published in 2005 the most comprehensive review on vitamin C and cancer, as a follow-up on the work of two-time Nobel Laureate, Linus Pauling. They have brought many new concepts into the scientific field, such as the bioenergetic theory of carcinogenesis, the systemic saturation phenomenon of intravenous vitamin C, and the metabolic correction concept for disease treatment and prevention.

The book, I Have Cancer What Should I do: The Orthomolecular Guide to Cancer Management by Michael J. Gonzalez, Miranda-Massari and Andrew Saul provides evidence based recommendations and an integrative approach for those dealing with cancer and seeking to improve quality of life and survival. In 2014 they published the book, New Insights Vitamin C and Cancer."

The crash occurred on August 9, 2024, and involved a Voepass ATR 72 twin-engine plane 61 (2SG: 62) people.

What evidence do you have that this plane crash was sabotage or intentional?

Aerodynamic stall? Icing on the wings?

Very likely, I am not a tech guy, so chip stuff is over my head:) Here is an interesting fact "on MH370 were 20 employees of US technology company Freescale Semiconductor makes powerful microchips for different sectors, including the defense industry. 12 employees were from Malaysia and eight from China. It led to speculation that they had important industrial secrets." Nothing there just conspiracy facts so "They say":
