In case anyone still has a scintilla of doubt that the gene altering Modified mRNA kill bioweapon “vaccines” were anything but a critical component of the NWC globopedo’s global eugenics program, here is the latest VAIDS data proving exactly what was foisted on humanity at the height of the PSYOP-19 scamdemic:

VAERS dropped the receipts on miscarriage/stillbirth reports by year... and here's a look at 2021-2022.

From basically flatline for decades to over 3,500+ reports in 2021 alone? That's a gentle curve - that's a cliff.

They told pregnant women these shots were ‘safe and effective,’ pushed them through and now we’re staring at this explosion in reports right after the rollout. Coincidence? Or is the ‘root cause’ conversation they shut down on autism about to blow up here too?

Hospitals reporting days with ZERO births? Empty delivery rooms? What the actual is going on with our kids and the next generation?

Culling primarily the elderly, the sickly, and the unborn early on, only to now of the “vaccinated” survivors be VAIDS victims that are either succumbing to plethora of adverse events or walking ticking time bombs is all part of the Gre Depopulation agenda; for example:

As this Substack has been warning for many years now, the turbo cancer epidemic is only now underway as a direct function of the Modified mRNA slow kill bioweapon “vaccine” platform foisted on humanity during the PSYOP-19 scamdemic; in other words, cancer rates will continue to explode, and the genetically modified young people will be ...

Etc. & etc. & etc.

The critical question for MAHA remains: why have these depopulation injections been pulled from the marketplace with extreme prejudice already?

Thankfully, people are finally waking up:

Children's Health Defense

@ChildrensHD

The vaccine injuries are so vast that it can't be hidden anymore, and the "safe and effective" narrative is crumbling.

So yes, skepticism is widespread for good reason.

POLITICO @politico

Vaccine skepticism among Americans is widespread, a Politico Poll found.

Nearly half of U.S. adults surveyed in our poll signaled they think the science on vaccines remains up for debate and that it's damaging to require people to receive them.

I was once a healthcare worker in a pediatric setting. I would go to the "babyland" section nearby cemetery to visit several of the babies we lost. Rarely, would I see a new grave, always stood out, due to their freshness. Last time I went in 2023, there were 17 new babies all with birth and death listed as the same date. This is one small cemetery in Tucson.

Even now, try telling this truth to the average Blue-pilled Pinhead, see how far you get. Woke Canuckistan, Mark Carnage has his ill-gotten majority government, it will shortly Venezuela V.2.0... the lunacy in The Strait of Hormuz continues; as Donald strangles the price of everything will go up and up and up; hyperinflation and social collapse — a widespread starvation, don't kid yourself — will soon be commonplace, as the Demons murder most of humanity pursuant to Digital IDs, Central Bank Digital Currencies, "15-r (IOW Gaza-style concentration camps) and Chinese-style Social Credit. Covid-19 and Injections were just a warm-up act.
