Proper procedure is as follows: 1- Ignore the pseudo-judge's order! 2- Order ALL "vaccin stopped immediately!! 3- Bring the pseudo-judge up on charges of exceeding his authori the evidence of his Pharma corruption!!

Charge the creature with malfeasance in office, to enrich corporate criminals whilst k complicit in causing both severe and deadly harm to children. He is complicit in crim humanity, there is no penalty for such a crime, that can be considered to extreme.

Modern immunology, despite its scientific vocabulary, operates on the same structural pr ancient healing superstition: an expert class claims exclusive authority over invisible force demands public submission on faith, and treats dissent as dangerous ignorance.

Fascinating all the pre ww2 literature that today would be considered heresy.

I think that that particular statement can be extended to the medical field in general.

Another stall tactic. It will be appealed and Murphy (the judge impersonator) will be scold again by the Supreme Court. The three strikes and you are out rule should apply to this impersonator.

They give the people what they want. Half the people would revolt over not giving their children vaccines while the other half taunts them for not wanting to bomb someone else's children.

The proper Constitutional way to curb executive overreach, if it is indeed overreach, is curbed by judicial overreach.

That later sin is absolutely worse than the former.

Left wing Judges must by definition be corrupt Judges. Good Judgement demonstrates common sense. Socialist ideology is the denial of reality, as good Judgement depends entirely on true understanding of reality, in any prosperous viable society only the corrupt or stupid support Socialism.

Brian Murphy cannot be presumed to be entirely stupid, and taking into account the profit and his criminal disregard for the well being of children, he is undoubtedly corrupt to the core. The extreme harm such creatures as Murphy and Big Pharma represent, leaves any and all actions to end the harm they are doing, entirely acceptable.

Such creatures will only stop when either overtaken by fear or by the grim reaper.
