

Monsters, Inc.

We See Them

MICHAEL HERMAN

JUN 21, 2026

At the very core of our current problem in America is that we live with a good of our population that cannot acknowledge the depths of evil in mankind. The to see that some can become so consumed with tribalism, science, religion, ad to a false principle, that they will sacrifice human life in service to their cause.

So deep is their commitment to this false God they've created in their mind, tl abet any and all horrors in service to their crusade.

I've not doubt that Netanyahu, a Ben Gvir, and so many others in Israel, even t extent of a plurality in Israel, believe so strongly in their superiority as "The C People", and have convinced themselves so thoroughly that they are surrounde only their lessers, but not more than cattle, animals, subhumans, that to just a a population in Gaza, to continually murder off those in the West Bank to seiz land that Jews there feel is their birthright, that they actually feel in their hear are doing the right and proper thing by just genociding an entire population.] service to their desire for a "Greater Israel", where there is no more Gaza, no r West Bank, Just their own land from sea to sea.

Have you heard them speak on Israeli television?

Ben Gvir sounds like a mad man, unhinged, his hatred for all things that are n Jewish so great he openly calls the Palestinians cattle to be destroyed. Knowin camera. Openly.

Even moderates interviewed in Israel and asked about the downright murder of women, children, civilians in Gaza will immediately respond with “well, on OCTOBER 7TH”, as if the response in destruction has been completely commensurate.

I see pastors in America defending Israel, I see tapes of Mike Huckabee defending Israel, from his Ambassador to Israel position, defending a genocide, defending indefensible. Huckabee sounds as if he works for Israel, not the United States America. He sounds almost as unhinged from reality as Ben Gvir.

We all live amongst men and women who refuse to see the reality, so committed they to their original belief system, to their core idea, that somehow there is a Christian Zionist alliance that runs deep. Have they read the Torah? Have they seen the Christians in Lebanon now being bombed by Israel?

So deluded are they that they refuse to see their own being massacred in Lebanon.

Take Andrew Fauci as another example. So committed to this idea that gain-of-function research has a long term benefit to humanity that supersedes the danger that he went around the Obama directive to stop funding such research by funding the Eco-Health Alliance to continue the research, and then, when there was a lab leak, he used his position to cover it all up claiming that the virus originated in a local market from impure dietary practices.

Fauci, using his position at the NIH, as well as working with others of like mind scientists all, who value research over present day human life, hid the truth from the American People, and promoted a “vaccine” that wasn’t a vaccine at all. They were openly telling us all that “if you get the shot you can’t get Covid, or transmit it.” We all know by now these were outright lies.

So committed to his life's work in scientific research, Fauci allowed millions to suffer, and stood before us all with a hubris we should sickening.

Here is where it gets really eerie. Those in the mainstream media who want to excuse Fauci, and so many others who lied and participated in the scandal, have fed a narrative that is so convincing to those in sympathy with Fauci they created viral candles and sold them to the faithful who continue to adore Fauci and his ilk.

Talk about deluded beyond any human understanding of sensibility. Excuse me and Mrs. Liberal, but you are idolizing an absolute monster.

Boiled down to the essence, a Mossad operative trafficked underage girls to our politicians, and leading financial figures in the United States of America, in secret Israel, to entrap our politicians and leading financial and entertainment figures. Always be in service to Israel, a foreign nation.

Girls were recruited from the mean streets of West Palm Beach, Florida, paid off, and shepherded to Epstein's private island where grown men did the unspeakable with underage girls. This happened, this is all factual, no one disputes this.

And yet no one has been punished. Not one of the men that participated in taking advantage of the underage girls has faced punishment. None. A London Prince had his personal reputation shredded, but that is a small price to pay for violating the sanctity of the underage we all have an innate duty to protect. Not to violate.

Where is the outrage? Where are the "good citizens" who should be in the streets demanding justice be served?

Where is the worldwide condemnation for what we see Israel doing before our eyes and right under everyone's nose?

For Christ's sake it is so bad that Jared Kushner held a conference and showed of the new construction at the beaches in Gaza they proposed to build and cor once they've murdered off two million people.

Where is their humanity? Taking a pride in their shiny new skyscraper at the Jews, at the expense of an entire people. Where is our outrage at such nakedly and corrupt behavior? Such hubris after behaving as monsters.

The hubris so complete they didn't hide their project, they invited in cameras the world how wonderful it was they'd improve the entire region with beach r shops, and restaurants. Over the bodies of two million dead, mostly innocent v and children.

That is a monster, someone who has lost all of their humanity, who would star cameras and boast about their new riches, at the expense of women, children : innocents.

We should all be in the streets protesting. We should be tearing these people f their cushy lairs and bringing them to a vigilante justice.

Instead Kushner lives the life of a pampered billionaire as Fauci lives the life c millionaire with a huge government pension. Rewarded for their sins. Not pur And incredibly, adored by so many.

What is wrong with you people? Good God, what is wrong with you?

These people have descended into a self absorbed madness and we allowed th rewarded for such. We sit quietly and watch, as if all is right with the world. S adore and revere them.

Those people need a wake-up call beyond comprehension.

As I type this Israel is bombing Lebanon, destroying Syria, just taking over and occupying the Golan Heights region that was formerly Syrian territory. Do you think Syria, or Lebanon, declaring war on Israel? No?

But we are all going to sit by quietly and watch as they just seize territory from their neighbors? Allow them to murder entire towns of citizens, some Christian, for the lust for a "Greater Israel" project?

Things are so bad in Israel they are saber rattling for Turkey to be attacked. They are sitting there doing nothing to Israel except having a strong army, nuclear weapons, and being considered a regional threat to Israel's power.

The Arab nations in the UAE and Saudi think themselves safe because they've bought off with their own oil cash. Do they not realize that if Turkey goes down, they will follow? Good God.

There are monsters amongst us. Big monsters. Huge monsters. They are destroying lives as I type. They've sold off their heart and humanity to a personal cause that is bigger than life itself. Blinded by a deep enthusiasm for their passion and crusade.

I regret that there is no living with monsters. Monsters must be slayed. Destroyed.

We cannot live with them, they know only destruction. They know only sacrifice for their greater cause. How is a Tony Fauci not in jail right now?

We are in the clear aftermath of so many atrocities carried out at the hand of our enemies. We see their carnage, and yet we do not act. We sit powerless.

This can no longer go on, their practices we cannot abide.

It is past time for the monsters to be slayed. Destroyed. Reduced to ashes.

Unfortunately we must all temporarily lose our own humanity to restore the ri order. Sad but true.

You cannot reason with monsters.

Mr Herman. Amen. Fitts says that a political solution is largely unworkable, given the cc interest. The best we can do is to cut off the financial support to ventures we disagree watch my precious metals investments go down in nominal terms, it seems that the "cc continue for several years to come. Hence, the ability of the money masters to keep Ev US, in Israel, and elsewhere will persist, as morally repugnant as it is. Justice will be slc most likely. Antidepressants, the vaxx and the many psyops we are subjected to have d most people's capacity for righteous indignation or even clarity of thought. AI tools cor shaped and limited to enable ongoing State and Corporate control of the masses. Thar your post this morning.
