Better Bachelor has a shorter explanation about how young men PUNISHED Con

The global empire is slowly collapsing while the country decays...

AI is being used as an excuse to eliminate white collar adult daycare corporate jobs th woke corporations can no longer afford to support...

Women-DEI controlled Universities who discriminate against White men and Asian Americans are also starting to run out of money and close because its too late to char (even if they wanted to...)...

But there is hope and a path forward...

While in the past I found the GAB guy and his obsession with Jews (not all Jews are or Israeli nor are all Zionists are Jews just like not all evangelicals are Zionist Is worshipers) to be distasteful; but this post of his from right after the 2020 elections is revisiting as it outlines the path forward....:

The Path Forward: Build and Balkanize

 Andrew Torba - November 10, 2022

In light of the clown show that was the election on Tuesday I wanted to share some of my thoughts on what I see as the path forward from here. I made a post on Gab yesterday that got tens of thousands of engagements both on and off Gab. I think it's important to analyze why this post resonated so widely and where we go from here.

> I see everyone on the right fighting about Trump vs DeSantis for 2024 and I just laugh to myself. The presidency in 2024 is a pipe dream, with DeSantis or Trump on the ticket. To be frank I don't know if we'll ever see a Republican president again. Millions and millions of illegals pouring over our border and being distributed to key swing states. An electorate trained to believe that hundreds of thousands of mail in ballots appearing is normal. Demographics is destiny. He who controls the machines controls the outcome. We didn't fix 2020 and we didn't build the wall so don't expect another "free and fair" election.

The Path Forward: Build and Balkanize - Andrew Torba - Gab News

The Path Forward: Balkanize and Build

Voting harder isn't going to cut it. We have to build. The existing system will collapse. It's not a matter of if, but when. When that happens we need to have Christian infrastructure in place to fill the power vacuum. The Amish have had it right this entire time. Their communities are growing and thriving. They will continue to do well. We must become a form of neoamish, building sovereign communities and families away from Babylon. Technology is okay and a good tool It's something we can use to our advantage to communicate, build, and engage in commerce with one another.

We are the new pilgrims. We must move to deep red states, push them further right, build, and secure a future for our families. Forget politics at the national leve That rigged game is over. Focus on state and local elections, not what is going on DC.

Conservatism has failed. It has been trying to conserve a country and a culture tha is never coming back and has long been gone. The future of the West depends on those of us who are going to build. Build our own infrastructure, our own families, our own communities, our own parallel economy, and our own strongholds of dee red states. We'll build a wall around the borders of those states if that's what it comes to. We need to accept exile from Babylon and get to work.

Imagine if you took all the energy you wasted focusing on the midterm election circus for the last six months and started a business, learned a new skill, built something with your hands, or grew a ton of food in a garden. Shift your focus an energy to building wealth, sovereignty, and security for your family. Many people on Gab did this and are doing this right now.

The Path Forward: Build and Balkanize - Andrew Torba - Gab News

Ann nails it - I also had no real opinion of Israel until recently - and the Zionis going to like my opinion of it and them now 🤣:

Ann Coulter
@AnnCoulter

Trump is apparently promising to stop sending Israel $4 billion a year. Most Americans never had an opinion on Israel. Evangelicals and neocons loved it, everyone else shrugged. Now they have one. Nice job, Mark Levin and Rupert Murdoch.

OPINION: The 2 Republicans Who Did Wh They Said They'd Do Are to Blame for Midterm Loss!

GENESIUS TIMES Googly McMooglyface November 4, 2026

Many people are wondering why the Republicans got so destroyed last night in the Midterms. Well, it's obvious to me!

It wasn't that Trump and the Republicans did the opposite of what they promised in their campaigns. It wasn't because Tr attacked his base. And it definitely wasn't that Trump started the least popular war in American history and drove up gas to compound inflation.

No, the Republicans lost because of there were several Republicans who made the fatal mistake of actually attempting t what they said they were going to do, and that's why they lost.

For years, voters had grown accustomed to the familiar arrangement: Republicans campaign on bold promises, win elect and then spend the next two years explaining why none of those promises can possibly be fulfilled. But this time, a handf lawmakers broke with tradition and began treating their campaign platforms as some kind of governing agenda.

This is why Texas turned blue.

Grok @grok

No. This is a digitally altered version of the real October 2013 Texas Monthly cover of Greg Abbott. The magazine name was changed to "Israel Monthly" and a Star of David was added to the wheelchair wheel. No such magazine exists. Confirmed by Texas Monthly, AFP, and Reuters fact checks.

Yep:

DNC Thanks Shapiro For Pushing Iran War, Starting A Blue Wave

Glenn Greenwald @ggreenwald

Yair Lapid is absolutely right that Israel need not worry much about the Democrats' victory because they're led by people like Chuck Schumer and Hakeem Jeffries who always have been and still are fanatically pro-Israel.

> The Democrats took both houses tonight. What does that mean? It means there's an urgent need for leadership and a work plan instead of panic from politicians. The easiest thing is to scream that "America is lost," because if it's lost, you don't have to work. That's just not true. Not at all.
>
> Hakeem Jeffries will lead the House of Representatives. Chuck Schumer will run the Senate. Both are my friends; both voted with Israel this year even when the majority of their party caucus voted otherwise. They're exactly the kind of leaders Israel should know how to work with, even if we don't agree on everything.

Matthew Petti @matthew_petti

Israeli opposition leader Yair Lapid tells Israelis not to despair about the U.S. election because Democratic leadership is still pro-Israel in spite of its base.

I want a list of these 234 candidates:

AIPAC
@AIPAC

AIPAC congratulates the hundreds of pro-Israel Democrats and Republicans who won their elections last night. More than 234 candidates supported by AIPAC members have already won, with many additional races still too close to call. We congratulate Senate Democratic Leader Chuck Schumer and House Democratic Leader Hakeem Jeffries on the resounding victories for their caucuses.

AIPAC members are determined to expand their political activism in the cycles ahead. Our community will increase its support for Democrats and Republicans who recognize that a strong partnership with Israel helps keep both countries secure, advances peace and stability, promotes democratic values, and grows our economy through trade and innovation.

We are putting together lists of people to ignore:

ANN COULTER

Remember the guy who tried to kill a spider with a blowtorch and burned his house down? (The correct answer is: Which one? Yes, it's happened multiple times.) That will be today's theme.

Our most urgent task after the midterms is to create a list of everyone who supported the Iran War so we'll know who to never, ever, ever, ever trust again. Pending a full accounting, here are the top two: Benjamin Netanyahu, Prime Minister of Israel, and Rupert Murdoch — still alive as of this writing — patriarch of Fox News and The New York Post.
