

The COVID Reckoning That Never Came

And the Silence That Proves the Psyop

ED DOWD: BEYOND THE NARRATIVE

Over the last several years I have been posting nonstop on X about the same nightmares we've been living through...the COVID psyop, the experimental m shots, the mandates that destroyed lives, the injuries, the excess deaths, and the relentless propaganda machine that tried to silence anyone who noticed the b piling up. I have watched it all in real time: the fear porn, the goalpost moving "safe and effective" lies repeated like gospel while real-world data told a different story.

Now we have fresh, documented revelations that should have blown the lid off everything. Instead? Crickets from the media and, more disappointingly, from current administration that promised accountability.

Senator Ron Johnson dropped another devastating report and hearing in late 2026: "Unmasked: How Biden Health Officials Purposely Turned a Blind Eye to COVID-19 Vaccine Safety Signals." Internal records show FDA officials knew VAERS monitoring was inadequate to say least. They had better data-mining tools ready to flag clear safety signals: cardiac deaths, strokes, pulmonary issues, But they chose not to use them. Why? To avoid "vaccine hesitancy."

This was not screw-up territory. It was deliberate. Vaccine-injured people sat from Peter Marks and other top FDA brass begging for acknowledgment. The stonewalled. Johnson rightly calls this one of the biggest scandals in his decade of public service. Then in early June he held another hearing exposing potential links to the mRNA shots and the systematic suppression of critical studies. Same playbook: inconvenient science gets buried or attacked.

Around the same time, Tulsi Gabbard, in one of her final moves as DNI, declared documents laying out Fauci's role in funding gain-of-function research at Wuhan, the lab-leak cover-up, the intelligence manipulation, and the retaliation against traitors. Millions of taxpayer dollars funneled into risky biolabs, followed by the narrative-control machine kicking in to blame nature instead of the obvious.

These are not anonymous X threads. This is a sitting Senator with subpoena power and the former Director of National Intelligence dropping official records.

So where is the firestorm? Where are the front-page exposés, the prime-time specials, the demands for real hearings and prosecutions? In 1976 the swine flu vaccine pulled after 25 deaths and 500 cases of Guillain Barre Syndrome. In the covid era we have approximately 39,000 deaths reported to VAERS following the shot. Apparently lives got cheaper over the last 50 years. The legacy media has mostly ignored it, downplayed it, or run the usual "right-wing conspiracy" dismissals and lies... and crickets on recent FDA COVID vax revelations. Their complicity is not an understatement, rather it was essential to the entire psyop.

Even more frustrating is the relative silence from the current Trump administration. After years of vowing to expose the lies and drain the swamp on the pandemic response, these revelations land and... not much follow-through. No aggressive push for accountability. No sustained public reckoning for the officials who covered up safety signals or manipulated the origins story. That silence hits hard. Additional vaccines are still on the market and this administration is now complicit. What a failure!

A lot of us did not need Johnson's reports or Gabbard's declassifications to see fraud. Back in 2022 and 2023, my team at Phinance Technologies was already digging into the data and uncovering the real narrative through our Humanity Projects. We analyzed excess deaths, disability surges, absence rates, and the health and economic costs of mass inoculations when almost no one else wanted to touch it. Check out the full body of work here: Humanity Projects

What we found through cold, hard numbers lined up with what the bodies on the ground were showing. We weren't surprised by the latest revelations from Sen. Ron Johnson. We had been sounding the alarm years earlier, while getting labeled as conspiracy theorists for it.

We watched the institutionally well-established benefits of natural immunity being summarily dismissed and memory holed. We saw "two weeks to flatten the curve" turn into endless boosters for the compliant and job losses for the unvaccinated. When our friends and family were injured or worse, then told it was "rare," "coincidence," or "misinformation." Those of us who protested the mandates and the experimental mRNA shots were labeled Russian disinformation, dangerous spreaders, even domestic terrorists. It did not stick, but they tried.

For those who saw through the propaganda early, resisted it, and watched people die, our worldview has forever changed. The greatest cover-up ever. But despite the MSM blackout, word has gotten out through underground channels, thanks in part to Senator Ron Johnson and others who refused to let the subject die.

The betrayal runs deep. These new revelations do not surprise us but rather they confirm what the data and our own eyes showed years ago. They lied. They knew they were lying. They censored, gaslit, and destroyed lives to protect the narrative. Institutions including public health, intelligence, media, Big Pharma were all in on it and still propagating the lies today.

That loss of trust is profound and permanent for millions of us. We no longer believe in believing official statements. We demand primary data. We assume self-preservation and narrative control from authorities until proven otherwise. The COVID era did not just damage credibility on one issue instead it shattered how the entire group of people view government, “experts,” and authority. “Doing your research” proved to be a critical lifesaver.

The people in authority still defending the garbage jab or pretending none of this matters can keep taking their 12 boosters (dirty little secret... they are not). They are done. We are profoundly changed. More skeptical. More data driven. Less willing to comply. Team Humanity was born out of this mess.

The window for real accountability is slamming shut. Even if these officials eventually get memory-holed, the lesson is clear: they never planned to come clean. They intend to forget and move on to the next crisis.

I am not forgetting. And from what I see every day, millions are not either. As time rolls forward and the cognitive dissonance of those who took the vaccine wears off, our numbers will continue to grow.

“For nothing is hidden that will not be made manifest, nor is anything secret that will not be known and come to light.” — Luke 8:17

The silence is from those who, weary from the long fight against the tyranny and considering warning friends and loved ones not to endanger themselves by partnering with a nefarious regime have seen the consequences and know that there will be no justice, no reckoning. The silence from those years and the subsequent devastation makes one desire to turn our attention from the grief to some other experience which will bring meaning to our lives. It shifted all that we understood about the world, breaking our frame of reference and trust in institutions we have protected us and instilled trauma for those who foreknew that those we warned would be harmed, sickened, disabled or killed. We now live on a battlefield with wounded peers and shocked veterans look about for answers to the devastation that the program of needles in their skin wrought for the remainder of their lives.
