Lesson #1: Psychopaths stalking us

Club of Rome and Limits to Growth

The Club of Rome was founded in 1968 at the Rockefeller Foundation's private retreat, Villa Serbelloni, in Bellagio, although the Rockefeller family preferred to remain in the background for political reasons, the Club was there from the start. The organization commissioned a study from MIT that led to the 1972 publication Limits to Growth which argued that the Earth could not sustain current rates of population and economic growth.

Forster, director of the MIT study, stated in his 1971 book World Dynamics:

Pressures are necessary to hasten the day when the population is stabilized. Pressures can be increased by reducing production, reducing health services, and reducing socialization.

Forster advocated for deliberate reduction of food, health care, and industrial capacity as tools to control population. The underlying assumptions of the MIT Forster model were formulated to produce scenarios that result in reduced living standards for the global population.

1991 Club of Rome publication The First Global Warming, the organization stated:

Looking for a new enemy to unite us, we came up with the threat of global warming, water shortages, famine, and the like would fit the bill. All these are caused by human intervention, and it is only through changes in attitudes and behavior that they can be overcome. The enemy, then, is humanity itself.

Meade, co-author of Limits to Growth, has continued to advocate for an 86 percent population reduction, from 8 billion to approximately 1 billion people. As of 2023, he maintained these positions.

Rockefeller Foundation and Population Control

Rockefeller III founded the Population Council in 1952 and made population control a central focus of the Rockefeller Foundation's work. From 1913 onward, the foundation promoted population control concepts in the form of supplying contraceptives and funding studies of population control.

The foundation funded numerous nonprofits that pushed population control and climate change narratives. According to historical research, approximately 1,000 Rockefeller-funded organizations promoted these agendas, many of which appeared to be grassroots movements but were actually centrally directed and financed.

Rockefeller, who served on the Club of Rome
Executive Committee and founded the Trilateral Commission, stated publicly in his memoirs:

Do not believe we are part of a secret cabal working against the interests of the United States, characterizing my family as 'internationalists' and of conspiring with others throughout the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure—one world, if you will. If that's the charge, I am guilty, and I am proud of it.

At a Business Conference on September 14, 1994, David Rockefeller stated:

I am grateful to The Washington Post, The New York Times, Time Magazine, and other great publications whose directors attended our meetings and respected their promises of confidentiality for almost forty years. It would have been impossible to develop our plan for the world if we had been subject to the bright lights of publicity during those years. But the world is now much more sophisticated and prepared to march towards a new government.

This is the story of how the Rockefeller Foundation conceived and promoted global warming by funding 1000 for-profit corporations.

-200: The Kissinger Report

On September 10, 1974, the United States National Security Agency completed National Security Study Memorandum

ed “Implications of Worldwide Population Growth Security and Overseas Interests.” Henry Kissinger d this classified study, which involved collaboration
the CIA, USAID, and the Departments of State, e, and Agriculture.

document became official U.S. foreign policy when ed by National Security Decision Memorandum 314 ember 26, 1975. It was declassified in 1989 and made n 1990.

200 explicitly laid out a detailed strategy by which ted States would promote population control in ing nations to regulate access to natural resources.
memorandum identified 13 countries for special focus:
Bangladesh, Pakistan, Nigeria, Mexico, Indonesia,
the Philippines, Thailand, Egypt, Turkey, Ethiopia, Colombia. The document stated,

...the allocation of scarce resources should take account of what steps the U.S. is taking in population control. There is an alternative to mandatory programs may be needed.

, following NSSM-200, the National Security Council advocated for withholding food aid to encourage adoption of family planning approaches. A memorandum read:

...in such cases, strong direction has involved incentives, such as cash payments to acceptors for sterilization, or disincentives, such as low priority in the allocation of housing or schooling to th larger families.

tion #2: We live in Liar's ld

nd and editor Jim Arnold dedicates his Liar's World
k to this premise. He adds:

*We don't acknowledge that there is an organized force ; against us, against society as a whole, they're left bating each other on how to fix something that's been nally damaged, as if it were all from a bad storm – unavoidable. We need to expose intention.
why I always talk about the cabal.*

are not just facing deformed politics and ality, but a conspiracy to take everything from us, ng our lives.

fiction writer Theodore Sturgeon made this related ent in 1951: Ninety percent of everything is crap. This s true today, but the agendas behind the lies are arly visible through the wall of excrement. George ina (1863 – 1952) concurred when he wrote, ism, like chastity, should not be relinquished too. My exquisitely skeptical wife is convinced that n's number should be 99 percent.

lists have degraded our information es into a hall of mirrors. Here are a few oles:

popular culture is, of course, shot through with balist frauds. I do not write much about Hollywood, I could pick many examples, but I recently learned m Jim Arnold that Rain Man (1988) was designed to malize autism. That unwatchable movie always gave the creeps, and now I know why. It came out almost ultaneously with the National Childhood Vaccine ury Act, which exempted Pharma from vaccine ility. This is evidence of foreknowledge and nning by the psychopaths.

en now, after all I have seen, I am still shocked by idea that these events were likely related. Either the al's scientists understood more about the vaccines n we did, or there was some demonic influence. ither explanation seems rational or likely to me.

ou have doubts about any of this, scan my posts, IT HARD TO GROK* HOW EVIL VACCINES ARE | PFIZER IS DOING A GIANT DOSE-FATALITY | UDY ON YOU USING THE COVID VAXES AND | ERS DATA. Then let the following graph burn a e in your mind:

Autism prevalence and vaccine doses through 2nd birthday

Autism Prevalence and Cumulative Vaccine Doses Through the Second Birthday, 8. The number of vaccine doses recommended for U.S. children by age two (green is plotted alongside autism prevalence estimates per 10,000 children (blue squares), from both early epidemiologic studies (pre-2000) and CDC ADDM Network reports (ward). Polynomial trend lines demonstrate strong parallel increases in cumulative exposure during early childhood and the reported prevalence of autism across successive years. *Permission to use this figure was obtained from Children's Health Defense.*²⁹

Autism increases precisely with vaccines.

Modern medical care is designed to have a net damaging effect; see Butchered by "Healthcare." Those of us in the know call it "Rockefeller Medicine" because its organization was conceived by this globalist. The system is both bankrupting us and destroying our families, and the COVID vax is just the most recent in a long line of damaging "vaccines" and other frauds.

ally, The moon landing was a Hollywood production. Although I knew from personal contacts that NASA people were a bunch of jerk-off's, reading proof of this was intensely painful for me. Look through the references on that one if you have doubts. There is far more.

Lesson #3: The population explosion

Ehrlich's The Population Bomb (1968) was a book of globalist lies is more obvious now, for our numbers are crashing. I read the book when I was 15, the year it came out, and I believed every word. Ehrlich wrote:

... Cancer is an uncontrolled multiplication of cells; the population explosion is an uncontrolled multiplication of people. We must shift our efforts from the treatment of the symptoms to the prevention of the cancer. The operation will demand many brutally brutal and heartless decisions.

The Club of Rome's "Goals for Mankind" (1976) stated that the ultimate ideal sustainable population is hence more than 1 billion but less than one billion." This is an 85-93% reduction from the population levels of the day.

Robert Mueller, founder of CNN and major UN donor, stated in 1997: "A total population of 250-300 million people, a 95 decline from present levels, would be ideal.”

Psychopaths advocate for a reduction to a fraction of present levels and a willingness to accept “brutal and inhumane decisions” to achieve these goals.

Dr. Dowd says, “Demographics is destiny.”

Cassandra—someone whose warnings go unheeded because of their accuracy. In Greek mythology, Cassandra was cursed to speak true prophecies that no one would believe. Modern demographic and economic analyses, grounded in historical data and actuarial statistics, paint a stark picture of the world’s population collapse that most prefer to ignore.

As documented excess mortality patterns, disability trends, and demographic collapses that align disturbingly with the population control objectives outlined in documents like NSSM-200.

The analysis focuses on actuarial data showing concerning trends in working-age populations. In 2022, Dowd documented an 84 percent increase in excess mortality in the millennial age group (25-44 years old) compared to 2020 baselines. These patterns reflect demographic shifts that compound the already catastrophic fertility decline.

These analyses use insurance industry data, which cannot be easily manipulated for political purposes. Life insurance ies must price risk accurately or face bankruptcy. These companies report unprecedented mortality rates in working-age populations, it is true demographic change.

Global picture

Two-thirds of the global population now lives in countries with fertility rates below the replacement threshold of 2.1 children per woman. The global average of 2.3 in 2023 masks severe declines in developed nations. In 90 percent of the world's countries, fertility rates fell over the past 25 years. Rates have dropped below replacement permanently in 1963. By UN projections show that populations in some major countries will fall 20 to 50 percent. The working-age population is shrinking while the retiree population grows.

United States

The U.S. fertility rate hit a historic low of 1.6 children per woman in 2023. The country has stayed below replacement since 2007. During the baby boom, women averaged 3.6 children. That era is gone.

Fertility rates among women in their twenties collapsed. Rates for women 35–39 went down 71 percent between 1990 and 2023. And rates for women 40–44 declined even more dramatically. Older mothers have fewer total children and higher complication risks. The median age at th climbed from 27 in 1990 to 30 in 2019.

ure of Americans aged 65 and older is expected to rom 17 percent today to 30 percent by 2080. The ssional Budget Office estimates that the nation's ion growth rate will be zero by 2035. Social y's trust funds face depletion around 2033, triggering tic benefit cuts of 20 to 23 percent. Reversing the l would require fertility rates to more than double ately, to levels not seen since 1962.

Medicated Suicide: Medicalizing Death

Introductory color commentary is about an ghoulish doctor who specializes in killing both fetuses and adults who “loves her job.” An article is HERE, and a YouTube video is HERE. Warning: it is sickening.

Canada's Medical Assistance in Dying (MAID) program, which became legal in June 2016, has expanded rapidly. As of the end of 2022, there had been almost 10,000 MAID deaths—more than 13,000 of these took place in 2022 alone. By 2021, MAID accounted for 3.3 percent of all deaths in Canada, or 10,064 people.

ing cases have emerged. In 2019, Alan Nichols fully applied for MAID while being hospitalized for ideation. The reason given on his application was loss. In September 2021, Rosina Kamis, a 41-year-old woman, applied for MAID, citing fibromyalgia as the reason but in conversations with friends, she mentioned financial hardship and social isolation as additional factors.

In January 2022, an anonymous Torontonion suffering from extreme chemical sensitivity syndrome had a medically assisted death after failing to find affordable housing free from tobacco smoke and other chemicals. In February 2022, a man from an unnamed location applied for MAID due to the inability to find suitable housing.

In September 2022, an anonymous active Canadian Forces member said he was offered MAID when seeking medical assistance regarding PTSD and suicidal thoughts. In October 2022, Paralympian and veteran Christine Gaudet testified that a Veterans Affairs Canada employee offered her MAID as an option when she was fighting to get a wheelchair lift or ramp installed at her home.

In August 2022, Vancouver Coastal Health asked patients seeking mental healthcare for suicidal ideation if they would like to consider MAID. The hospital stated that the question was a method of assessing suicide risk, but s experienced it as undermining their access to prevention care.

ation: Farm Control and Food Supply ction ember 2024, thousands of British farmers descended iament to protest changes to inheritance tax that / will destroy family farms. The flashpoint was the nent’s decision to scrap a tax break dating from the at exempts agricultural property from inheritance pril 2026, farms worth more than £1 million ($1.3) will face a 20 percent tax when the owner dies and n passes to the next generation. The government he “vast majority” of farms—about 75 percent—will e to pay. But the farmers’ union says more than 60 : of working farms will face a tax hit.

Farms may be worth substantial amounts on paper, but they are often small. Government figures show that for most types of farms fell in the year ending by 2024, in some cases by more than 70 percent. The average farm income ranged from about £17,000 ($21,000) for small arable farms to £143,000 ($180,000) for large pig and poultry farms.

According to the Country Land and Business Association, a typical 200-acre arable farm making a profit of £100,000 could face an inheritance tax bill of £435,000. This amount is equivalent to 159 percent of the annual profit over 10 years. Such obligations will force the sale of farmland.

Similar policy followed months of farmer protests across Europe. In the Netherlands, farmer protests erupted in 2019 when plans leaked in the press showing that the Dutch government would require drastic measures to meet climate goals and reduce nitrogen emissions. The government drafted plans to reduce emissions from agriculture, and when these plans leaked, protests erupted with farmers claiming the measures might mean they had to sell their farms.

Mounting political upheaval led to the formation of the BBB (Bouwer, Bestuur, and Burger) Citizen Movement (BBB), which won stunning victories in provincial elections. The BBB is now part of the coalition government in the Netherlands.

Similar protests occurred in Germany, France, Spain, and other European nations. The pattern is consistent: policies that make farming economically unviable, justified in the name of environmental protection and fairness, but with the practical effect of consolidating land into fewer, larger holdings or pushing it out of rural use entirely.

In the UK, after sustained protests throughout 2024 and 2025, the government partially backed down in December 2025, raising the threshold from £1 million to £2 million. But the policy direction remains: taxation and regulation that make family farming increasingly difficult.

Food production is fundamental to population stability. Policies that reduce food production or concentrate food production in fewer hands increase vulnerability and dependence. This aligns very well with the population control objectives outlined in documents such as NSSM-200, which explicitly advocated manipulating the food supply as a tool of population policy.

Banking frauds finance all this insanity

The Federal Reserve system, established in 1913, created a banking cartel with the power to create money and credit. The Rockefellers, along with other banking dynasties such as the Morgans and the Rothschilds, were instrumental in developing and controlling this system.

The accumulated wealth enabled banking families to political, financial, and media companies. The Kaiser Family Foundation alone funded approximately 1,000 programs promoting population control and climate change initiatives. Similar funding patterns appear across other ultra-wealthy family foundations.

akin to the City of London—the historic financial district that operates with nearly complete independence from the UK government—as a control center. The City of London Corporation has unique privileges dating back centuries and maintains its own police force and judicial structure. It serves as the headquarters for many major international banks and financial institutions.

The World Bank, International Monetary Fund, and Bank for International Settlements form a triumvirate of global financial control. The World Bank has historically tied aid to developing nations to the acceptance of population control measures. The IMF imposes “structural adjustment programs” that often include austerity measures affecting healthcare, education, and social services—the reductions that Keynes advocated in 1971 for population control.

Bank for International Settlements (BIS), in Basel, Switzerland, operates as the central bank for central banks.
It provides banking services to central banks and international organizations and serves as a forum for international monetary and financial control. It is not accountable to any government and operates in secrecy.

The BIS, a modern Tower of Babel.

ovel Nineteen Eighty-Four (1984), George Orwell ‘If you want a picture of the future, imagine a boot ing on a human face—forever.’ This building looks like a giant boot, which is an obvious message from the artists.

Global sovereignty has been eroded. The European Central Bank, European Commission, and other EU institutions operate with minimal democratic accountability. Unelected bureaucrats in Brussels make decisions that affect hundreds of millions of Europeans.

e’s leaders are harming their people.

Liberal policies that reduce birth rates, make family formation difficult, increase immigration from unstable cultures, suppress domestic food production, increase dependence on supranational institutions.

is particularly captured. British policy on farming, rationing, healthcare rationing, and promotion of assisted suicide suggests a systematic effort to reduce the population while maintaining surveillance and control.

Globalist leaders are paid or otherwise influenced to align with these agendas. Financial incentives, including speaking fees, foundation grants, consulting contracts, and other mechanisms, can be substantial. Bribe is also used. Jeffrey Epstein's operation, which recruited intelligence agencies from multiple nations, recruited numerous influential figures. Similar operations certainly continue.

Ideological capture and "education": When future leaders attend the same institutions, attend the same conferences, use the same media, and socialize in the same circles, they develop similar worldviews. The selection process for top positions filters out those who do not accept the dominant narrative.

Lesson #4. What is the truth?

(106 BC - 43 BC) wrote, Nothing is so well fortified that it cannot be taken with money. The globalists' wealth and their claim that demographic collapse is inevitable are more worrisome. But although we know we are being misled by propaganda, some trends are cause for alarm:

The Progressive Policy Institute is a hard-left US non-profit 501(c)(3) founded by the Democratic Leadership Council in 1989. They, of course, conclude that demographic decline is irreversible.

Media, education, and entertainment are all captured globalist institutions and uniformly portray children's burdens and childlessness as liberation. They claim that careers come first and family later.

The mathematics of population momentum says that even if fertility rates were to increase immediately to replacement levels, population decline would continue for decades due to demographic age-structure effects. The working-age population will shrink due to low birth rates over the past 20-30 years, while the elderly population will grow as large cohorts from higher-fertility periods reach old age.

In no country where lifelong fertility rates have fallen well below 2.1 have they ever returned to 2.1 or higher.

France has tried to boost birth rates through a comprehensive mix of supports: heavily subsidized care from infancy through preschool, generous family allowances, monthly cash allowances for each child, and tax bonuses for parents who raise multiple children. These benefits cost an estimated 3.5-4 percent of annual GDP in return for an estimated increase of 0.1-0.2 births per woman. In 2023, fewer children were born in France than at any point since World War II.

South Korea has spent hundreds of billions of dollars on family support policies with no success. Its fertility rate continues to fall. Japan has implemented flexible work arrangements, generous parental leave, and massive subsidies, all to no avail. Their decline continues.

High housing costs, education costs, and career competition all push fertility in the same direction. In societies where young adults cannot afford housing until their 30s, where education requires years of debt, and where career advancement requires total commitment during peak fertility years, fertility rates are affected.

Research on Chinese women who immigrated to the United States shows that even when freed from one-child policy restrictions, those who were exposed to the policy for long periods had fewer children. The policy created a deep cultural change that persists independently of legal changes.

By 2050, one in three people in Asia is expected to be over 65. The working-age population is projected to shrink as the dependent population grows rapidly. Fewer workers supporting more retirees, while also raising the cost of social security and maintaining economic productivity.

Social security, Medicare, and pension systems were designed on the assumption that each generation would be larger than the one before. When this breaks down, these programs become actuarially impossible. The U.S. Social Security

y system will exhaust its trust funds around 2033
changes are made. Similar crises loom for pension
; worldwide.

f the suggested solutions involve either tax increases inking working population, dramatic benefit cuts owing elderly population, or some combination of these are politically unsavory.

Malthusian Theory of Population is a theory of exponential population growth and arithmetic food supply growth. Thomas Malthus, an English cleric and scholar, published this in his 1798 writings, An Essay on the Principle of Population.

Galton, cousin of Charles Darwin, developed eugenics. It was in England, where there wouldn't have been race segregation, but there were lots and lots of poor people. I often remind people that Marx was writing about the oppressed white poor. No one knows this, buying into the idiotic idea of eugenics, as developed in the United States and Germany, played on fears of "race degeneration." At a time when lower-class poor were reproducing at a higher rate than the upper-class members of society, these ideas attracted considerable interest. One of the most famous proponents in the United States was President Theodore Roosevelt, who warned that the failure of couples of Anglo-Saxon heritage to produce children would lead to "race suicide."

The argument for destroying the Constitution dates back to the time of Frederick Douglass writes about it in his autobiography. In England, Communists/Marxists tried to get him to support the US and the Constitution, arguing it was based on the French Revolution. He didn't take the bait. The French Revolution was based on the idea of social justice. It ended up very bloody and brought napoleon, who then marched his men to war with Russia, & in massive numbers of deaths.

Note: I wrote the clickbait headline, not my polite Elizabeth.

While you're not wrong they want to kill 4/5ths of us, what I'm more concerned about is the desire to kill us slowly and painfully. If they were concerned about the planet, they would make it quick and painless.

The autism epidemic, the cancer epidemic, the obesity epidemic, the "medical epidemic", the terrorism/fear epidemic and others all suggest that they want us to die a slow, painful, expensive death rather than extracting as much wealth through "healthcare" and CBDC.

Another Texan was Jimmy Keller, a cancer survivor who opened a clinic in Mexico in the 1980s and was successfully treating Stage 4 patients who had been told to go home and die. Keller was kidnapped from Mexico and forced to stand trial in a kangaroo court by the Medical Mafia who would only "allow" surgery, radiation and chemo to treat cancer.

They can pay for the best of the best of the best. Live in their own secluded paradise. What will these murdering clowns be doing once 90% of humanity is gone? Anything that they cannot do now? Whatever life they want, they can have it now without destroying humanity and nature.

They are controlled by Satan, literally bought and sold to his expertise. They are full of delusions precisely because they do not love the truth and are given over to these strong delusions. 2Thessalonians 2 states this exactly! Also, in Revelation 13:2 it states that the seat power and authority are GIVEN by the Dragon/Satan so we can see where the evil emanates. The bible explains it all but takes an enormous amount of study of the entire bible and history to see where this is all played out and fulfilled. Many years of in depth study. Mostly we have been lied to for centuries and what people think they know on this subject has been lies, false teaching and lazy ignorance. But if one truly wants to know there is teaching on HISTORICISM, the truthful interpretation of scripture regarding all spoken of here.

Because we aren't dealing with mere men. "Elite" is just a word. They get up at night to pee, same as everyone else. They delusionally fancy themselves "above" others, but they are "Those who profess to be wise but become fools".

We are up against "spiritual powers in high places" that we can't see, hear or touch. They are insane, with the goal of absolute destruction of the entire creation. They feed on suffering and sorrow. Look around you...

Don't waste hope that any man or physical force can stop them....only the One more powerful than they, the One who created the demonic forces, can limit the carnage.

Until we understand that, and act accordingly, we will be brought to the brink of complete annihilation! That includes those whom you call "elite". Evil only uses them as useful idiots, and then destroys them too. We will only be brought from the brink of total destruction, "but for the Elect's sake, those days will be shortened". Not for the "Elite's" sake, for the "Elect's" sake. Those who know prophecy, see that the deception and distraction is almost complete. There is a tiny group of Elect, called a "Remnant", on the Earth today.

ank you Dr. Yoho for this absolutely necessary article. I agree

Thank you Dr. Fene for this absolutely necessary article. I agree with the last part, written by Elizabeth because, like her, I know that this has been going on for centuries. I advise you to read the books by PD Stuart, Codeword Barbelon, vol1 and 2. These are history books outlining everything you are writing about here. It is footnoted. It goes as far back as 1535 to around 2010 or so. It is about world politics and the fight for domination and those who are doing it. But there are many such books still available which provide so many details about a vast array of subjects all concerning of what you speak. Edmond Paris writes the Secret History of the Jesuits. 50 Years in the Church of Rome by Charles Biniquy is totally relevant by the man Lincoln defended against the Vatican and of course his subsequent assassination. Digging deep into Lincoln's assassination reaps many rewards of understanding the true enemy of the world.

Anyway, it is vastly important to realize there is one enemy which has been doing the damage to the world since 1540 and before that there was another equally as bad if not worse. The seat of the papacy ruled over the Dark Ages with all authority, with little to NO opposition [1260years] and murderous tyranny! 1500 years of this war and tyranny imposed upon the whole world. If you read the papal oath you see their focus/intent. If you find and read many other books on these devils, you will see how they have come to infiltrate and take hold over everything in our time. They created all the people and institutions you mentioned which harm and destroy. They created all the clubs and secret societies and use every conceivable method of coercion and train and groom all who help them, coadjutors.

These devils have implemented a Counter Reformation since 1540 and they even think they won. In 2017, the then pope Francis said, "The Reformation is over." That was the year of the 500th anniversary of the beginning of the Protestant Reformation which awakened Rome vastly. The protest being against Rome and its wars and tyranny and murders. They have been actively pursuing to bring the world back to the time when they ruled with no opposition, the new Dark Ages, when no one owned anything, no e was free and there was no truth to be found....everyone living fear and bound by superstitions.

orry this is so long. One more thing, get the newest video by Chris Pinto, A history called the AMERICAN JESUITS. Lots of details. There are also great history books by Merle D'Aubigne and Wylie which tell devastating true details of the Reformation times. Don't think we can really do much w/o the truth and even less if we don't understand "why" this is all happening. This is all the conditions of a world fallen. Everything not looking at this info is an act of futility bc of the enormous power and size of the enemy. Don't be so gloomy but facts are facts and I do not place my hope anywhere in this world.

I read history and the bible, biographies are part of that as well. Mostly books from the period or from origins which can be "verified" as truthful, that is from sources with a history of sound and truthful facts. I have read many books regarding the opposition which led me to the truthful ones because they had only speculations without the the benefit of the exegesis/deep study required for proof. Most of the history books are out of print but obtained before being put out of print. So much has been lost to that action that some are extremely hard to find. When one discovers the lies, one is compelled to search for the truth, so I guess you might say that the opposition led me to the truth. It is easily verifiable after lots of study.

Thanks for another great post, Robert. Physical control through government and spiritual control through "the church" - a satanic playground.

See this evil is being exposed all by design because...the plan to take down the satanic cabal was written by the satanic cabal. The false prophet system is awaiting – snapping the control grid's final piece into place. Society is always duped by the security and comfort offered by the "lesser evil" side of the Hegelian dialectic method, as God warns in 1 Thes 5:3.

Dr Yoho, Some day I hope web sites have the technological capacity in Comment-Sections to convene formal Both-sides-now, Equal-time, Recorded & Published Dialogues, when there is constructive agreement & action to be pursued or for conflict resolution. It would have been interesting to have heard Chris defend his insult, in an equal-time or equal-character dialogue, but I too realize a pattern of insult, indicates he may not have this human depth. All humanity's indigenous ancestors called this 'Council-Process' employing equal-time & Circles of observers.

When we on the web have this web-programmed capacity set-up, then exposing people's ignorance (including often my own) is more powerful in protecting people, than censorship. All the best to you & thank you for your article & for engaging in the comments. TRANSFORMING SOCIAL 'MEDIA' (L. 'medium' = 'middle' i.e. 'both-sides engaged & presenting') FROM MONO TO DIALOGUE

"Yoho used to talk pro abortion." All of his writings on Substack are in the archive. How about you spend more than 10 seconds typing out a one-sentence attack and do some research to support your claim.

Find three references where he expresses a clear, unambiguous pro-abortion view, quote his exact words, and include a link to each quote from his massive body of published writing. Without such evidence, Nancy, the rest of us will just chalk you up to being a psychotic crank.

You mean to say, he changed his mind? Because for the most intelligent people, information can change their minds. Also, new information may solidify ones original position. My feeling is that it would be helpful--and for my part, interesting if you would argue your point if you disagree.

This article contributes to exactly what we need now:
TRANSPARENCY - on the all-pervasive racist-supremacist ethnocratic death cult whose leaders are desperate to stay in the shadows, casting themselves as victims whilst committing the most heinous genocidal crimes on masses of innocent people, and trying to capture and strangle nation after nation, all down to the individual level. In the light of "eugenics" everything that is done to oppress, control and eliminate us makes sense.

Our oldest son, who's a test engineer on the New Glenn rocket team, didn't give me much of a satisfactory answer as to why we haven't returned to the moon. It appears to me that the focus of most of these companies is the placement of space satellites and such, likely mostly for worldwide surveillance. I truly hate that I feel this. This young man is the hardest-working and most determined kid I've ever seen. He graduated with highest honors from GA Tech and hasn't a penny of college debt thanks to scholarships. (Oh, and his greatest passion is climbing!). As you can tell, I'm ridiculously proud of his achievements and he's a wonderful son as well. But alas, I fear that the space industry has little to do with exploration and much to do with control of the masses.

I was privileged to watch the first missions (rockets) to the moon take off in Florida, as a 20+ year old. Some people, like flat earthers, believe anything that sounds "scientific" to them, but the facts prove them to be fools, as outlined in the Bible. There is reference to the "sphere" of the earth. And also, those who are in space in the end times, in the book of Revelation...yeah, I'll believe the inspired word of God over someone who has no knowledge of physics or the universe. "Professing to be wise, they make themselves fools".

m most concerned about the judgments that Gpd will give on

There is excellent COMMENTARY cited on some of these verses for example

<https://catenabible.com/rv/6>

Revelation Chapter 6 verse 1

And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four living creatures saying, Come and see.

George Leo Haydock

Now that the Lamb had opened one of the seven seals, or the first seal. The interpreters are much divided in expounding what is to be understood by the sealed up contents, and in applying them to such and such persecutions, persons, and events, by all which it appears that there is no certainty as to such applications and positions, even of particular ancient fathers; though at the same time it is both certain and evident that many pretended interpretations, (that is, arbitrary inventions, from the private spirit of heretics) are both false and groundless, contradictory to the unquestionable authority (to use Dr. W.'s words) of the primitive Church, and inconsistent with the doctrine and belief of the Catholic Church, as I may have occasion to show that the ridiculous fable is of this number, of so many popes being Antichrist, and the beast of this Apocalypse. I shall, for the satisfaction of the Christian reader, as I hinted in the preface of this book, give a short account of those expositions that are not probable. (Witham) See Less

Revelation Verses on God's Judgment Against Large Swaths of the Population

In the Book of Revelation, several passages describe God's judgment that affects large groups of people on Earth, often in the context of the "Great Tribulation" and the final judgment.

Key Revelation passages:

Revelation 6:1–9:21 – These chapters depict the "Seven Seals"

d "Seven Trumpets" judgments, where God unleashes wrath on , injustice, and corruption across the world. The imagery includes plagues, locusts, and other calamities that affect many tions and peoples grace.sc.

velation 11:18 – "The Lord God of the spirits of the prophets, the d of Israel, has sent his angel to give his servants the power to stify to the nations, to open the sealed scroll, and to set free ose who were imprisoned." This shows God's judgment being ealed to many through His servants.

velation 14:1–20 – The "Babylon the Great" and the "Beast" are scribed as global powers whose influence and corruption affect ny. The "Beast from the earth" and the "False Prophet" are mbols of widespread deception and sin. The "Great Harlot" orepresents a corrupt system that influences many nations.

velation 15:1–8 – The "Seven Angels" pour out judgments on e earth, with the "Seventh Angel" sounding the final trumpet, ding to the "Great White Throne Judgment" (Revelation 20:11–), where all—great and small—are judged according to their eds OpenBible.info.

velation 20:11–15 – This is the final judgment: "Then I saw a eat white throne and him who was seated on it. From his esence earth and sky fled away, and no place was found for em. And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the one, and books were opened. Then another book was opened, ich is the book of life. And the dead were judged by what was itten in the books, according to what they had done. And the a gave up the dead who were in it, Death and Hades gave up the ad who were in them, and they were judged, each one of them, cording to what they had done" OpenBible.info.

hat Does the Bible Say About Gods Judgment?

ole verses about Gods Judgment

ntext:

ese passages show that in Revelation, God's judgment is not ited to individuals but extends to entire nations, systems, and global powers. The "Great Tribulation" (Revelation 6–19) is a period of widespread suffering and divine wrath, while the final judgment (Revelation 20:11–15) is universal, affecting all who have lived on Earth.

If you want to study these in depth, reading Revelation 6–20 together will give a clear picture of how God's judgment is portrayed as affecting large swaths of the population.

Revelation 3:9

Douay-Rheims Bible

Behold, I will bring of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie. Behold, I will make them to come and adore before thy feet. And they shall know that I have loved thee.

My Church became almost thoroughly infiltrated by the synagogue of Satan in the early 1960s at Vatican II council.

My Church taught in dogma and doctrine for over 1900 years about the enmity of Jesus with the Jews as recorded throughout the entire New Testament of the bible.

Dachsie believes that this old world is in what the bible called "the last days" and the days of many anti-christS and THE anti-christ.

True are the facts of Dr. Yoho's posting here but I think people of today want to discuss Israel and the Jews, and this subject cannot be omitted from this topic.

The bible refers to "the mystery of iniquity" and that flows throughout all human history.

Dachsie is currently researching the evil that has taken over my country and its leader who is about to send the USA military to attack Iran and start another unjust World War.

The world population reached 1 billion around 1804. It took all of human history until that point to reach this milestone, largely due to high birth and death rates, with growth accelerating only after the Industrial Revolution began. It took another 123 years to reach 2 billion in 1927."

Maybe a billion spread worldwide would be a nice numbereven possibly a bit higher . This, if living in a "make believe world" , would allow intelligent, kind, amiable societies to work and farm togethersharing ideas peacefully and eating real food from spoiled soils. Remember : I said make believe.

Anyone who advocates the maintenance of existing population levels when looking rationally at what a fkn mess this whole planet is let alone INCREASING the numbers..... well, nothing else they can have any other effect on me than to seriously avoid them. Eff !

You gotta be kidding me !
