I have always felt that there are more of us than there are of them but, as time passes, we are seeing uninvested invaders in countries, opportunistically raping (literally and figurative) conversion, depleting wealth built by real citizens and patriots. They have been allowed in countries by design to be given a vote and to vote for who fills their pockets, gives them reign to pillage and morally destroy etc. Then... and this is a big one...the sleepy ones, full brainwashed living in a la-dee-da-dee-da-dee-da lie derived from the propaganda MSM is paid for with hard earned tax dollars. In Canada, they think all is great, they are happy and King. The worst are the so called Christians that have bought into the lies and actually tra Word and change it in sermons to fit the cultural agenda. They honour man and perpetua unfounded TDS instead of honouring God.

This is where I say, I'm not so sure that there are more of us than there are of them anymore. Globalists and tyrannical Western governments are popping up with the blessings of vacu brained idiots. They are evil and tenacious but, the blind are happy in their own little work

I don't watch professional sports, unless it is free, and then mostly golf. Occam's Razor says the most likely explanation is the best choice when the evidence is too messy to interpret.

Think of that Sherlock Holmes story when the dog did NOT bark. It means the dog KNEW the killer.

The Rothschilds are most certainly part of the globalist monster ruining the world, but Trump is not of that circle.

Trump is hated by the left and also hated by the neo-con rino right. Could you must be reading too much of the FAKE news to believe Trump is in that group.

I think Ronin is a Canadian too! The majority are full on propaganda purple, Kool-Aid drinkers. All have TDS but not one can say why Trump is evil other than his "vile" Tweets. MSM lathers them up with lies about bad, losing Iranian war etc...what lazy idiots. They refuse to delve into Independent Media or actually think critically and look for truth. They are clueless, actually thinking Canada can defend itself, or live without American products and the reciprocal trade etc etc. The most egregious is that of the MSM morons know what the WEF is, the agenda, and how to deal with it with over 1/3 of all levels of all Canadian politicians and government departments being WEF...Trudeau, Carney, Freeland, D Ford, PP and more, trashing Trump and the US then funnel Canadian tax dollars to Ukraine in hopes of starting WWII with Russia. Oh and without the NATO, the trans, tampon wearing NATO military are useless. Canadian general have signed their demise...uncle Klausie stated in his book The Great Reset, Canada will be first to fall by 2030.

Last night I had "someone" chase me around on a week-old comment thread of a Caitlin | I happened to land the "top" spot with a comment - under which a vast conversation took regarding the use of "We" and "Our" when referring to the government.

This person was determined to get me to react. Using shame, guilt, reason, patriotism - c trying to find my personality weakness that would allow them to manipulate me, and ultim either defeat or silence me using intimidation and ultimately fear.

After I repeatedly exposed them as a Fed or shill of some sort, and rejecting their attempt "authority", they decided to DM me here on substack, again appealing to what they could determine was my psychological weak point - that I had "failed" as a citizen. And/or fear c targeting of me through a DM.

All this to say and show that these censorship operations are as widespread as you have here, and they are getting desperate.

Thanks for dovetailing my experience last night with your column - I hope this helps other come face to face with the censorship complex. That which can be as innocuous as an in comments on a week-old post. Except that it is neither innocuous nor innocent.

The easiest question you can ask yourself based on what someone is expressing are they where they are? If someone is working against the writer, you have to wonder if they're there.

Discussions and debate and exploration are one thing. But no-one goes to places where they vehemently disagree with unless they have an agenda.

Generally speaking, people don't mock or ridicule or try to silence other people unless they're working for someone.

That is their playbook for censoring people.

I have followed Caitlin for almost 15 years, and she is the antithesis to what you proposing. There has been nothing in all that time that would indicate that is true.

So besides being demonstrably false, your comment is completely unrelated to of my original comments.

Which makes me question your intent and identity.

Either you are planting seeds of distrust for Caitlin purposely, or you, yourself have manipulated to believe that it is so.

I have been following the Candace Owens/Tucker Carlson mess with some interest, not sure what is true or propaganda, or ploys.

I don't think the Robinson fellow killed Charlie Kirk. Too much info that has come out makes it look like he is a designed patsy. But the media wants us to think the fellow pulled it off all by himself. Plus, the physical mess that would have happened to Kirk had the rifle been a real one makes it impossible to believe.

I don't know. I think there is so much institutional grift and fraud there are few institutions that can be trusted. The collapse of honor and dignity has brought us to this point.

I love your stuff Liz. Keep at it please.

Tucker and Candace are both crazy. Their whole premise is to throw out weird or wild conspiracies as if true. Both are pushing for clicks to run up their grift off of these ploys. Candace is especially cruel when attacking women who may have a higher attention span than her. Her attacks on Erika are cruel and mean. Her attacks on TPUSA are based on Charlie Kirk distancing himself from her. Her revenge and scorn rules her daily life.

Every time I hear about the AI slop I can't help but think of the late 90s movie Multiplicity, lead male character makes a copy of himself which works out well, he makes a second cc decides to copy itself and the copy of a copy is a mess. I believe that's where we are that being told the copy of a copy is the real deal and some realize it is not but many cannot s happening. Corruption and graft we all like to think is new to this generation but in truth n see that this is the same Evil that has been happening for a long time. The Rolling Stone's "Sympathy for the devil" I've read was inspired by a read of the Bulgakov novel "The mas margarita"

Which weaves the evils of the Soviet era into fabric of long standing evil. May those of us understand what we are dealing with find and support each other and may God help thos refuse to see where we are headed.

Interesting. Being multilingual with Hebrew as one of my languages, I would, on occasion, Google Translate in order to grab a Hebrew word or phrase to cut and paste into a docum than switch the language in Word. I would occasionally discard the Google wording, with recollection that the last time I did something similar, the Hebrew words were as I expecte this time. I dimly suspected shenanigans on Google's part; now, perhaps that's the case. the dimmest among us, recognized that something ain't right. You're on the right track re: The Charlie Kirk assassination although Tyler Robinson's roor (alleged) boyfriend, not TR, was pictured in "furry" garb.

I haven't paid attention to George Webb or "John Cullen" or Jason Goodman et al since e.

PS:

I was boots on the ground in Las Vegas on the night of the Route 91 Harvest Festival mas during the following 6 months.

Every Alt media conspiracy podcaster in America descended upon Las Vegas at one time during that period of time. Most either had zero followers prior, or a very small following (Laura Loomer at the time...). They built their subsequent base during their investigations Route 91 massacre, pursuing various theories contrary to the official LVPD and FBI "Steph Paddock long gunman" narrative.

I followed pretty much all of them until I. Just. Couldn't. I have no idea whether most are s with the exception of Laura Loomer, Jason Goodman and George Webb.
