So the “Blue Wave” has washed over us all, a direct response to the Trump bet his core voters. Some are just astonished that we either lost in traditional red a the country, or that things were far too close in states that have “gone red”, su now native Florida.

In Florida we have a 1.5 million person advantage in voters registered “Republ and still some races were uncomfortably close. What part of “we have all had i the wall kissers” don’t they seem to understand.

I didn’t stay home, I voted, but only for the amendments and issues such as pr taxes, allocation for bonds, and other local issues. I refused to vote for any Rep

Besides, looking at the local Florida ballot, and far too many races in Florida, a were candidates who have pledged a fealty to a foreign nation. Brian Mast, wh in the IDF, Lois Frankel, in one race the two opposing candidates were Singer Moskowitz. Sure. Vote Red, get a candidate more loyal to Israel than the US, v get a candidate more loyal to Israel than the US.

Excuse me, I’m out. Done. Gone.

I have become a one issue voter. Show fealty to a foreign nation and you will n in what is left of this lifetime, gain my vote. I don’t care how big a DSA candid Flush it all, we've become a corrupt nation, controlled and beholden to foreign interests.

If the Massie massacre where three billionaires from outside his state spent th million to unseat him singularly and solely because he was seen as anti-Israel, you have lost the plot completely. Do I really have to name the three, do I reall say they were all of the same ethnic persuasion, do I really have to say they are Americans with a loyalty to Israel greater than to our own nation? Do I?

I firmly believe that the Silent Majority in this nation that holds real values, ha moral foundation, and is principled morphed into the Tea Party first, then int next as Trump the outsider came onto the scene.

MAGA not only believed, but were "all in".

They had no idea what they were up against, a one-two punch to the solar plex at first staggered, then put them all down on the canvas.

First, Trump of all people was supremely compromised from the Epstein Affai

Hello, hello, have you ever stepped back and wondered what exactly is "The E Affair"?

A group of billionaire American Jews who purposely created a honey pot trap underage girls and filmed sexual encounters for the purpose of capturing our politicians, business leaders, and cultural leaders from Hollywood, so that the be compromised and be forced to do the bidding of a foreign nation absent qu

And it all worked wonderfully, capturing everyone from Trump, to Gates, to E

Royalty, to Hollywood.

Apparently Israel doesn't ever want to hear the word "no".

Concurrent with this effort they flooded our Pentagon and CIA with operative extent that when contracts are handed out into the billions of tax dollars all th contracts go to members of "the tribe", the FBI gave a four hundred million do contract to Facebook, the CIA gave out billions and billions to Google, and th created Palantir with billions in government contracts, the same with Oracle, Hard to fail when you are handed billions of dollars. Pay no attention to the background, or ethnic affiliation of the owners of each of these firms.

Did you have a nascent start up in tech in surveillance and could use a half-bil dollar contract to help you grow, and gain success? Were you bidding? It appe have been some "closed door" process, the Mossad insiders rewarding their br

All compromised and owned by a foreign power, and fueled by AIPAC cash. O Completely.

There does exist a clueless base who doesn't understand that voting for any of means we go to war with Iran, or continue to send billions to a foreign power committing a genocide. Those votes are guaranteed. The Peggy Noonan wing Republican Party, fools all.

But there are 20% of us whose eyes have fully opened to the fact our governme sold us all out. And the Republicans cannot win office without us.

We saw live and in person what they allowed their handlers to do to Thomas M as well as Matt Gaetz and Marjorie Taylor Greene, anyone who goes against th Mossad Party loses, or is out.

So I'm out. Let the DSA take full control. They'll crash and burn the nation do quicker than the Mossad is doing through the George Soros wing. Let's have a Collapse and rebuilding is far better than what is coming.

Which is full control over us all by banking interests, social credit scores, and surveillance through Flock and Data Centers.

Trump betrayed us all to capitulate to Netanyahu and his insane demands.

And now the Republican Party has paid a price, the first of many. If Rubio, et, they can win national office as purchased and owned Toadies for Israel, they a fucking fools. Absent ballot box manipulation and control, the four aforement candidates have zero chance at winning. None. There are too many like me wh

We let a foreign nation run a blackmail campaign against our leaders right he

Our corrupt and compromised FBI and Justice Department did nothing. Noth children were abused. Hello, can you read that paragraph again?

The Neo-Cons, read "Mossad compromised" have full and complete control o

This "Blue Wave" should have been fully expected and understood.

We are all paying at the pump for one reason; Israel. And our blind support of maniacal policies.

And there isn't a God damned thing we can do about it, they've compromised

Treasonous. Pure treason. Somehow watered down through the mainstream m perfectly acceptable.

Then, of course, you have to look at ownership of the mainstream media. Larr the Roberts family, the Murdock family, and Blackrock. Do I have to tell you w

We are a fully captured nation.

Sensible Republicans such as myself refuse to endorse the Party that has sold

The Trump betrayal was a slap to the face, there was nothing subtle about it.

The Massie massacre was too nakedly corrupt. Too easily seen.

And please, spare me some diatribe about socialists and crazies taking over. I' have socialists and crazies than the Mossad anytime. Twice on Sundays.

No Republican candidate got my vote here. As if I was going to cast a vote for solider. Jesus Christ. Just Jesus Christ.

And there are so many in my camp. We've seen. We don't approve.

Crash it all so we can rebuild, we can start by eliminating the FBI, cleaning ho the CIA and NSA, and decimating the State Department reducing it to a dozer at best.

Time for Isolationism. And removing foreign influence in our own nation.

Call me any names you want. I live in the real world, I see. I understand. I'm al thoughtful, a sentient being.

I felt the betrayal. Hard.

You go fight in Iran. You fight for a foreign nation. You did it once, in Iraq. H that work out? How about the slush fund that is Ukraine, did you notice that Blackrock got the contract to "rebuild" once that "war" is over? Hmm. Stop no damn it.

They'll label you a nasty name.

Remain compromised and owned, the "Blue Wave" will continue on.

Wall kissers need not apply in my world. Ever.

If you don't see it by now, you never will. You still think Oswald killed Kenned

I am in agreement with all that you said. I've gone back to focusing on local politics, an people based on the quality of their platform and not the likelihood of their winning.
